4-Hers 'Focus On Fashions'

"Focus On Fashion" was the appropriate theme of the spring fashion show in which Cleveland County 4-H'ers demonstrated their talent for sewing and the newest styles for spring last Wednesday evening at Cleveland County Office Building.

Lorna Withrow, a member of Ramseur 4-H Club, came away with the top award in the show, Ann Childers placed second, Brenda Berry came in third and Gaye Caveny was fourth, all are of Dixon Community 4-H Club of Kings Mountain, and Judy Stroud placed fifth. The students won ribbons and cash prizes and Miss Withrow will model her prize-winning outfit in the state fashion review on April 29-May 1 at Betsy Jeff Penn 4-H Center in Reidsville.

Other area 4-H'ers participating in the show were Vickie Wilson, Crystal Lockhart, Trenna Hamrick, Angela Bell, Wanda Bell and Fredia Wilson, all of Long Branch Junior Club; Crystal Wright, Sheila Crenshaw, Dawn Bowen, Louise Stewart, all of Dixon Junior Club; and Frances Ramseur of Ramseur club.

Ann Childers, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. James A. Childers of Dixon Community, second place county winner, brought home a red ribbon and a $10 gift certificate. She made and modeled a pantsuit.

Brenda Berry, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Tom Berry of the Dixon community, third place county winner, made and modeled a pantsuit. She also received a gift certificate.

Crystal Wright, also a ribbon winner from Dixon Club, received a certificate and gift of threads.

Dawn Bowen, also a ribbon winner from Dixon Club, received a gift certificate, as did Louise Stewart.

Gaye Caveny, fourth place winner from Dixon Club, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Marvin Caveny, received a gift certificate. She modeled a gingham dress with matching cape.

Assisting local 4-H'ers in their project were Florence Brooks, 4-H Extension Agent; Mrs. Frances Greene and Mrs. Helen Hawks, club leaders; and Donna Caveny, senior 4-H member.

All four groups of 4-H talent earned prizes and will compete in a preliminary screening for a show to be held at Carawinds in May and will take part in a 4-H District Activity Day on June 23 at Shelby High School.

Talent winners were Angela Bell and Angela Hood who danced, Long Branch; Judy Stroud, who performed a baton act; Sandi Wells of Dixon 4-H Club, who sang; Lisa Roberts and Krista Panther, who performed a dance and gymnastic routine; and Jeff Cooper who presented a vocal solo, "Johnny One Note."

The talent competition was sponsored by Kings Mountain Kiwanis Club and the winners received all-expense trips to 4-H camp.

Takes Time Out for Baby

Still Loses 75 Pounds
Credits Conway Diet Institute

Mrs. Kathy Zimmerman, has lost 75 pounds and reached her goal weight while following the Conway 1000 Calorie Diet and attending the weekly Insight Seminars. The interesting part of Kathy's story is that mid way through her weight loss she took time out to have a baby daughter. Six weeks after delivery, Kathy went back to the Conway program and lost the last 33 pounds. She's now at goal weight and 75 pounds lighter. Kathy, a registered nurse, says "I felt miserable when I was overweight. I knew the harm obesity was doing to my health. I had never been able to diet successfully before. I found the Conway Diet easy to follow, nutritious and satisfying. The Insight seminars were stimulating and informative. The interaction with other members was a real support."
