

Talent Finalists Named For Contest

By CINDIE SHORT
KMSHS Correspondent

The KMSHS Blazer Band left for Disneyworld, Florida on Friday afternoon. They were chosen to lead the parade in Disneyworld after they sent in a recording of their music and were selected. They returned Tuesday afternoon.

Talent elimination was held Friday after school for the high school division to be held in late April. Those six finalists selected were Karen Lall, Bridgette White, Theron Feemster, Phil Wofford and Group, Sammy Rogers, Kenny Roseboro and George Pittman and Group of Albany.

Girls State representatives were selected last week. Two rising seniors are chosen to participate in the program which gives the participants valuable experience in governmental procedure. Selected were Loretta Husky and Laurie Jenkins. Boys State representatives are Oroux Husky, Mark Sanders and Terry Yarborough. Girls State is sponsored by American Legion Auxiliary and Boys State by American Legion.

Governors School participants were also selected. Select sophomores and juniors who are eligible for acceptance in this summer program at Winston Salem on the basis of academic record and school recommendation are chosen. They are Jeff Boggan, Keith Williams and Jeff Robinson.

Mrs. Myrle McClure, choral director at KMSHS, presented a concert with her Senior Choir at Penley's Chapel in Kings Mountain.

Student registered for classes for the next school year last week.

The Science Club has begun plans for their camping trip this April. Phil Bryson and Mrs. Jackie Lavender are sponsors of the Science Club.

Career Day was held on Wed., April 20, for juniors and seniors not going to college. Business, technical institutes, nursing, etc. schools were represented. All vocational students were urged to attend.

Junior and Senior members of the Beta Club of KMSHS attended a N. C. Beta Club convention in Asheville where the meetings were held in the Civic Auditorium. The students left Friday morning and returned Sunday afternoon where they stayed at Holiday Inn Central. Students attend sessions Friday night speeches made by the state president who made a keynote speech and also
