

MRS. PHILIP G. PADGETT, JR. (Betty Bradshaw)

Padgetts Wed In Virginia

Salem Methodist Church of Rice, Va. provided the setting April 2 for a 2 p. m. exchange of wedding vows uniting Miss Nancy Elizabeth Bradshaw of Rice and Philip Grover Padgett, Jr. of Kings Mountain.

Rev. James C. Hennings of Annandale, Va. officiated, using the double-ring ceremony.

Mrs. Mattiemarie J. White was organist for the program of nuptial music and Mrs. Queta S. Watson was soloist and sang "The Wedding Prayer" after the reading of I Corinthians 13 and the wedding ceremony. The congregation prayed together a prayer of blessing and the benedictional Lord's Prayer.

Robert Julian Bradshaw escorted his daughter to the altar and gave her in marriage. The bride's gown was a formal design of ivory silk jersey trimmed with lace appliques with long traditional sleeves and sweetheart neckline. Her fingertip veil of illusion was attached to a Juliette cap and she carried a bouquet of bridal roses.

Mrs. Dianna Goforth Bradshaw was her sister-in-law's matron of honor and bridesmaids were Mrs. Louise Hanbury Davis of Richmond, Va., Mrs. Rosaline Shoffner D'Onofrio of Northern Virginia, Mrs. Marilyn Pitha Jones and Mrs. Rosa Pettit Noyes, both of Richmond, and Miss Susan Hope Spiro of Fairfax.

All the attendants wore aqua blue Guiana formals featuring soft cowl necklines and cap sleeves. They carried cascade bouquets of daisies.

The flower girls wore white long gowns enhanced by turquoise print, turquoise sashes and hair ribbons and carried flower baskets of turquoise petals.

The bridegroom's grandmother's prayer pillows were used by the couple as they knelt at the altar for the benediction.

Flower girls were Catherine Atwood Noyes, Jane Perry Noyes and Susan Sydnor Noyes, Goddaughters of the groom.

Edmund Noyes, Jr. of Richmond was best man for the bridegroom and groomsmen were Robert Courter Bradshaw of Blacksburg, Scott Martin Harwood of Farmville, Carlyle Peerman Holland, III, of Virginia Beach, Va., Charles Cooper Padgett of Charlotte, N. C., brother of the bridegroom, and Nelson Ray Ramsey of Petersburg, Va., brother-in-law of the bridegroom.

The bride's parents entertained after the ceremony at a beautifully-appointed reception in Wedgewood Country Club, Farmville, Va.

Miss Jones Feted At Drop-In Shower

Miss Donna Jones, whose wedding to Lewis Miller takes place May 21 in First Baptist Church, was honored Saturday at a drop-in party-shower in Hudson.

Entertaining together were Mrs. Randy Wilson, sister of the bridegroom-to-be; Mrs. Euell Koontz, aunt of the bridegroom-to-be; and Mrs. Gary Miller, sister-in-law of the bridegroom-to-be.

Seventy-five guests showered the couple with gifts for their new home and called from 3 until 6 p. m.

A color theme of yellow and white featured decorative details and party refreshments. A conversation piece was the gift table where the bride-to-be's future mother-in-law had decouped a collage of childhood pictures of the bride-to-be and her future husband. Overlaid with lace over yellow, the refreshment table was centered with a spring bouquet and held the silver punch bowl at one end. Punch and party pick-ups were served.

Receiving with the bride-to-be were her mother, Mrs. Donald D. Jones, and her future mother-in-law, Mrs. R. B. Miller of Hudson.

Also attending the party from Kings Mountain was Mrs. Roger Gaddis.

The bride-to-be wore a green and white party dress and was presented a shoulder corsage of yellow carnations from the hostesses.

Bride-Elect Given Shower At Church

Miss Rebecca Lynn Ellison, who will be married on June 26th at First Baptist Church of Kings Mountain, was honored at a drop-in shower in Greenville, S. C. April 21st. The event was held in the Family Center of Woodside Baptist Church where the bride-to-be was formerly a member.

Entertaining together were Mrs. Dwight Granley, Mrs. Jack Milligan, Mrs. C. G. Wyatt, Mrs. A. M. Harper, Mrs. Larry Chapman, and Mrs. Robert Graydon, all of Greenville, S. C. and Mrs. Andrew Mulligan, Jr. of Blacksville, S. C. All are aunts of the bride-to-be.

The more than 50 guests were welcomed and registered by Mrs. Graydon who directed them to the bride's table which was decorated with white linen, white wicker baskets of white and yellow daisies, brass and cut-glass candleabras interwoven with grapes and yellow candles. Refreshments of banana punch colored spring green and served from a leaded crystal punch bowl and white cake squares decorated with yellow daisies were served with assorted nuts.

Gifts were presented by the guests to the bride-to-be, assisted in opening them by her sister, Elizabeth, and her cousin, Bridgette Granley, Cousins, Yvonne and Robin Chapman, helped the hostesses with displaying the gifts on tables beautifully appointed in white linen and following the green, white and yellow theme that will be used in all the bride-to-be's parties and color theme of the wedding.

Mrs. Dennis Reece of Pineview Drive, was among guests traveling to Greenville to honor the bride-elect.

Rebecca and her sister, Elizabeth, are the daughters of Mr. and Mrs. Larry M. Ellison of 105 North Gaston Street. The family are recent newcomers to Kings Mountain, having moved here in October when Mr. Ellison was transferred to Gastonia.
