KMHS Second In Competition

Kings Mountain Senior High School won an award last week at Lenoir Rhyne College Foreign Language Festival.

The local high school captured second place in French songs competition.

The Lenoir-Rhyne festival was extremely successful, attracting more than 1400 high school students for a day of fun and competition with foreign languages.

Local students participating included Sherry Short and Cindy Wells who sang a duet; Gene Penner and David Bolton who participated in a short skit; Aileen Brennan, Robin McSwain and Cindy Wells, who read poetry; and participating in song groups were Todd Gatts, David Barrett, Cindy Wells, Stan Alexander, Sherry Short, Robin McSwain, Janet Edwards, John Noblitt, Chuck Walker, Sharon Foster, Jan Rushings, Jewel Reavis and Jeff Boggan.

Other students attending the festival were Clayton Wright, John Plonk, Richard Ross, Kathy Roberts, Sharon Bridges, Herbie Beam, Mary Armstrong, Vickie Metcalf, Terri Lofelace, Deanna Valentine, David Rohles, Barbara McClain, Tory Hagen, Brenda Sciam, Charlotte Sciam, Douglas Oates, Barbara Patrick, David Robinson, Priscilla Rickenbacker, John Jones, Jeff Prescott, Roy Pearson, Beth White, Alyson White, Lori Smith and Charles Bumgardner.

The students were accompanied by the following teachers: Mrs. Carol Peeler, Valentine Quintin, Kay Humphries and Mrs. Virginia J. Raymer.

The Song Group won second place in competition with 200 other schools.

Included in the annual Foreign Languages Festival were high school displays and demonstrations, songs, dances, short skits, poetry recitation, one-act plays and long skits, a slide show on Germany and France and Latin countries.
