Brownie Troop Planning Outing And Pizza Supper

Brownie Troop 82 of First Presbyterian Church are culminating a busy year Thursday with an outing and supper at Pizza Inn.

Highlights of the year have included making gifts for their mothers at Christmas time and an exchange of gifts among themselves at a Christmas party given by two Brownie Moms — Mrs. Carolyn McGinnis and Mrs. Joan Bradley.

In February at an annual Thinking Day program the girls presented a song and dance routine representing the Bahamas Islands and tied for first place in this area. They were asked to perform again in Gastonia at the annual Scout Council meeting in April. After the performance in Gastonia, they enjoyed a tour of Schiele Museum and Planetarium.

Also in April the troop took the church bus out to the Kings Mountain Battleground where they walked the trail and visited the museum.

Shirley Gossett is troop leader and Nancy Allen is assistant leader.
