GOFORTH PLUMBING

108 YORK ROAD - 739-4736

COMING HOME — David Ray Robinson rounds third and heads home after hitting three-run homer in second inning of Wednesday's game with South Point at Lancaster Field. Robinson's homer gave the Mounties a 7-3 lead, but South Point came back to win the game, 12-10. The Raiders defeated the Mounties again Friday in Belmont 7-4 to win the Southwestern Conference title.

None of the Mountaineer runs were earned.

KMHS grabbed a 2-0 lead in the second on Bruce Valentine's single, which plated Danny Bolin and Andy Loftin. Bolin had reached when his third strike got past catcher Mitch Painter, and Loftin reached on an error.

Joe Shepherd singled with one way in the bottom of the second to ignite South Point's winning rally. After Rick Lawing reached on an error and Danny Barker walked to load the bases, Randy Moss plated the first South Point run with a sacrifice fly. After Steve Davis walked to re-load the sacks, Witzke cleared the bases with a double and the winning runs.

KM cut the lead to 4-3 in the third as David Ray Robinson singled and later scored on Bolin's long sacrifice fly to center, but Witzke and the Raiders broke the game open with three in the fourth. KM managed another run in the seventh on Bryan White's triple and an error, but that was as close as the Mounties could come.

Robinson worked the first four innings and was

BOILING SPRINGS — Jack Washington, a 6-6, 190-pound forward at Middle Georgia Junior College, has signed a basketball grant-in-aid with Gardner-Webb College.

He is the second player to sign with the Bulldogs following last season's 30-3 campaign. Gardner-Webb finished second in the final NALA national rankings.

Highly recruited out of Bainbridge (Ga.) High School, Washington started at Georgia Tech as a freshman before transferring to Middle Georgia. In two seasons, he has not shot below 54.5 per cent from the field and 81.0 per cent from the foul line. Washington averaged 23 points per game last season and was an all-state selection among the Georgia junior colleges.

tagged with the loss. Ronnie Wilson held the Raiders hitless over the final two frames.

South Point forced the third game in the best of three series by outscoring the Mountaineers 12-10 Wednesday night at Lancaster Field.

The Red Raiders jumped out to a quick 3-0 lead off lefty Steve Lancaster, but the Mountaineers got a two-run homer from Bruce Valentine and a three-run homer by David Ray Robinson in the second inning to take a 7-3 lead.

The Red Raiders battled back to take a 9-7 lead after five innings, and when they scored three in the top of the seventh for a 12-7 cushion, it looked like they had smooth sailing.

But Raider ace Scotty Shope ran into some trouble in the bottom of the inning and Coach Phil Tate had to call on two more pitchers before escaping with a 12-10 edge.

Wilson reached on an error to get things going, and after Shope fanned Tim Whitaker, Scott Ellis reached on an error. Shope came back to fan Danny Bolin, but then hit Andy Loftin with a pitch to load the bases.

After Shope hit Bruce Valentine to force in the eighth run, Tate called Tom Haynes from the bullpen. But he walked Jim Hall and Bryan White to force in two more runs and Tate called Dizzy Richmond in from third. He worked a 2-1 count on Robinson before Robinson bounced back to the mound to end the game.

The Mountaineers finished with only four hits, three of them coming in the seven-run second inning.

But KM's lack of hitting wasn't the difference. The big difference was 13 errors committed by the sloppy KM defense. Only two of South Point's 12 runs were earned, and one of those two came on a second inning homer by Bill Stowe.

The Red Raiders had 12 hits, with Mitch Painter, Shope and Richmond getting two each. Besides Valentine's and Robinson's homers, the only other KM hits were singles by White and Ellis.
