

Games Are Set Tonight

Three games were played last Saturday in the 14-15 year old division of the Babe Ruth League here with the Red Sox, Macedonia and Mountaineers taking the honors.

The Red Sox took a close game from the VFW, 4-3 with Eric Dixon as the winning pitcher.

Losing pitcher Jody Deaton struck out 14 batters before Terry Chapman banged a two-run homer in the fifth to put the Sox ahead. Ricky Chapman also earned two hits for the Sox.

For the VFW, leading hitters were Duane Brown and Steve Crawford with one hit each.

Macedonia defeated Robo, 7-1. The winning pitcher was Tim Leach, who also earned two hits for Macedonia. Losing pitcher was Danny Barker. Robo's lead hitter was Todd Blalock with one.

The Mountaineers blanked Grover, 15-0 behind the pitching of Wade Harrington. Harrington only gave up three hits.

Lead hitters for the winners were Eric Moore, 3 for 4, and Lynn Hayes, 2 for 2.

Losing pitcher was Steve Hames. Leading hitters were Dean Bledsoe, 2 hits, and Junior Ross, one hit.

Tonight at 6 at the junior high the Mountaineers meet the Red Sox. Also beginning at 6 p. m. at the high school is a double header with Macedonia meeting VFW. At 8:15 p. m. Grover and Robo meet.

On Saturday a 6 p. m. game is set at the junior high and beginning at 6 p. m. at Ramsey field two games are on tap.
