

Ken Boheler Among Top Science Students

Kenneth Boheler of Kings Mountain is among thirty-one superior high school science students from North Carolina and 11 other states participating in a Student Science Training Program in Physics at East Carolina University June 22-August 22.

The program is funded by the National Science Foundation and involves six weeks of concentrated research and study in mathematics, computer science, solid state physics and X-ray fluorescence. The student participants are also working with the ECU physics department's tandem Van De Graaff accelerator and observing the night skies through stellar telescopes.
