

Upholstery Course Set

The Continuing Education Department at Cleveland Tech has announced the beginning of upholstery for beginners. The class starts Tuesday, Aug. 16, and will meet each Tuesday and Thursday, through Oct. 20, from 9 a. m. to 12 noon at Tech's Continuing Education Center at Compact. Mrs. Kathryn Wilson will instruct.

Persons needing further information are requested to call Cleveland Tech, 482-8351, between the hours of 8 a. m. and 4 p. m., Monday through Friday. Adults, 18 years of age and older, interested in enrolling in this class may do so at the first class meeting paying the $5 registration fee.

BLACK MASS UNITED CHOIR — Members of the Black Mass United Choir will perform at the Crusade For Christ being sponsored in August by Adams Chapel Methodist Church.

Summer Registration Is Held

The second session of the summer short session at Cleveland Tech begins Mon. Aug. 15. Registration for this second session has been announced for Tuesday through Friday, Aug. 9-12, from 8 a. m. to 4 p. m. The game room, located on the ground floor of the student services building will be used for registration. The various courses being offered are scheduled to meet for two-hours each day Monday through Friday. Courses available include English, Mathematics, psychology, business, and industrial science. The purpose for these short sessions is twofold in that Tech's continuing students are given the opportunity to "catch up" and beginning students can "get ahead" in one of the curriculum programs. Persons interested in the short session program are requested to call student services at, 482-8351, for further information. Office hours for student services are from 8 a. m. to 9

p. m. Monday through Thursday, 8 a. m. to 5 p. m. on Friday.

BC Street Dance Set

Bessemer City Area Patrol will sponsor a street dance Sat., Aug. 13, from 7 until midnight and "Southern Playboys" will provide music for the event. The dance will be held in the 100 block of Pennsylvania Avenue in Bessemer City. Tickets are a $1 donation and those attending will be eligible to receive four prizes, including first prize of 100 gallons of gas, and 25 gallons gas and burglar alarms as the other prizes, said a spokesman.

Vallee

One Man

Show Set

In a rare stroke of good booking, the Pineville Dinner Theatre has signed veteran entertainer par excellence, Rudy Vallee!

Perhaps one of the most revered names in show business, Vallee has chosen the local dinner theatre for one of the first performances of his one man show, "Something Different, or 'Have You Gone to the Bathroom Yet'?" Starting on Tuesday, Aug. 9, Mr. Vallee will appear nightly at Pineville thru the 14th of August with a special matinee on Sat., Aug. 18th.

The musician from the University of Maine was catapulted to stardom with his rich musical talent on the instrument of the twenties, the saxophone. When he ventured into the world of vocal music with the Heigh-Ho Club Orchestra, the medium of radio had found its first great voice. Suddenly, the airwaves were filled with this new voice extolling the virtues of "The Wiffenpoof Song," "If You Were The Only Girl," "My Time is Your Time," "When Shadows Fall" and "Maine Stein Song." The legend of Rudy Vallee had begun!

Vallee affectionately refers to himself as the "Pat Boone of the Stone Age." However, he has never stopped growing in the business that he has dominated for over half a century, and was one of the first performers to move into the new medium of television. He has worked on Broadway in a prize-winning performance of "How To Succeed in Business Without Really Trying", where he created the role of J. P. Biggley. Later, he made a highly successful movie version, and only three years ago teamed with Bobby Morse for a West Coast revival of the show.
