

Hamricks 'Get-Together'

GET-TOGETHER

Their invitation read, "Tis summer again and time to remember the period of fellowship we had last year together. So two hours after three please come for tea, bring your best smile and a word of cheer to provide us with happy memories for another year."

Mrs. David R. Hamrick and her two daughters, Norma Glascoe and daughters, Gigi and Kristina, and Gail Martin were the hostesses Friday at the Hamrick home on S. Roxford Rd.

Friends called from 5 until 8 p. m.

BRIDE-ELECT HONORED

Miss Kim Hampton, whose wedding to Ray Howell, Jr. takes place Aug. 27th at 5 p. m. in Grace United Methodist Church, was honored Aug. 7 at a drop-in bridal party at Grace United Methodist Church Fellowship Hall.

Entertaining together were Mrs. Stonewall Jackson and daughter, Sandi, Mrs. Bill McGinnis and daughter, Donna, and Mrs. Molly Salmons and daughter, Cindy.

The 75 guests showered the bride-to-be with gifts for her home and called from 7 until 9 p. m.

Receiving with the honoree were her mother, Mrs. Charles Hampton; her future mother-in-law, Mrs. Ray Howell; and her grandmothers, Mrs. Grace Hampton and Mrs. Laneva Weaver. A green and yellow motif was featured in decorative details. The bride's table was centered with an arrangement of Shasta daisies flanked by white tapers in silver candlesticks. A silver punch bowl was at one end of the table and silver appointments held cake squares, sausage balls and mints.

Miss Hampton was presented a corsage of Shasta daisies to wear with her beige party dress and wedding gifts from the hostesses.

SCHOLARSHIP FUND

A Scholarship Fund has been established by friends of the late Tommy Grissom and memorial contributions can be forwarded to First Presbyterian Church, PO Box 954, Kings Mountain, N. C. 28086.

The scholarship is not an athletic grant but will provide educational assistance to any deserving student, said a spokesman for the church.

Tommy Grissom died Aug. 10 at the age of 15.

TO CONVENTION

Dr. W. L. Mauney, podiatrist and Mrs. Mauney of Kings Mountain, participated in sessions at the 65th annual meeting of the American Podiatry Association, Aug. 11-16, at Sheraton Hotel in Philadelphia, Pa.

The meeting brought together foot specialists from across the country to discuss topics ranging from podiatry's role in the nation's health care delivery system to reports on the latest advancement in treatment techniques.

Dr. Mauney, a graduate of Temple University and Illinois College of Podiatric Medicine, was joined by nearly 2,000 podiatrists, exhibitors, and guests at this meeting.
