G-W Names Bates, Bearden

Bill Bates and the Rev. Clyde Bearden of Kings Mountain have been named to leadership roles in the Gardner-Webb Annual College Fund.

Fifty-four representatives from various graduating classes of Gardner Webb College met recently on campus for a training academy that will involve them and their classmates in the Annual Fund. The campaign begins this fall and extends through June.

The Annual College Fund is an ongoing program to attract annual gifts to help pay the day-to-day costs of the College," Rev. Bearden said. "Tuition and fees now pay less than 80 percent of the true cost of educating a student. The remainder comes from income realized from endowment (interest on endowment) and financial support from alumni and friends of the College." "The College Fund is important this year, as it will seek to match, dollar-for-dollar, a challenge gift from the Dover Foundation," Bates said. "Charles I. Dover and the Dover Foundation have given $100,000 to the College provided new gifts equal $100,000. The total amount the Annual Fund will seek this year is $187,000 or $100,000 more than last year."

The $100,000 Dover challenge gift launches the $10.5 million Bold Dimensions in Higher Education Program at the College.

Rev. Bearden is pastor of First Baptist Church and Bates is assistant superintendent of Kings Mountain District Schools.
