

Harris Is DAR Speaker

Colonel Frederick Hambright Chapter of Daughters of the American Revolution heard Senator J. Ollie Harris as guest speaker on the subject, "A Source of Strength In Government - Our Constitution At Work," at the September meeting.

His remarks brought to the member's attention facts concerning the state legislature. He presented to the Chapter a copy of the book, "North Carolina Government from 1885 - 1974," a narrative and statistical history which contains a wealth of information relative to very phase of our state government.

Among the Senator's comments were: "North Carolina is one state that has never exceeded its budget. To date there have been no state scandals. Each year the budget is expended to meet the increased needs. Various organizations such as the DAR, Woman's Clubs and church groups have had a large influence on government decisions. William A. Mauney was the first N. C. Senator from Kings Moun-

Harris, have included Horatio Thomas Fulton, Jack White and William K. Mauney, Jr.

Auxiliary To Landscape Sunshine Garden As Fall Project

A Sunshine Garden will be landscaped at Kings Mountain Hospital as a Fall project of the Kings Mountain Hospital Auxiliary.

Members made plans for the landscaping project at Monday's luncheon meeting in the hospital conference room.

Mrs. Henry Neisler, president of the Auxiliary, appointed Virginia (Mrs. L.E.)

Hinnant as chairman of the landscaping project, assisted by Mrs. J.E. Herndon, Mrs. James Herndon, Jr. and Mrs. Jack Arnette. All members will assist in the planting of shrub-beries and landscaping of the garden, which adjoins the Chapel, and landscaping in the area where the hospital sign is placed at the front of the hospital.

Twelve members attended the initial meeting of the Fall and the luncheon was hosted by the hospital staff.

Mrs. Neisler announced that the recently organized Candy strippers are "going full speed ahead" and said that 100 hour pins would be presented to two of the young volunteers, Leigh Ann Barrett and Tonya Burton. She commended the young volunteers for outstanding service to the hospital patients in the visitation program.

MR. SPUD - Francis Lail, an employe of Pauline Store, grew this potato that favors a fat rat in her garden in the Bethlehem Community. She dressed it up just a tad, using toothpicks for legs and a tail, and displayed it on the meat box at the store.

Get Your Tickets Becomes Registered Pharmacist

Ticket sales are going good for the Taste Fair which women of Central United Methodist Church will sponsor on Oct. 11 in the church fellowship hall. Both lunch and dinner will be served, and tickets at $3 can be obtained by calling the church office, 789-2471.

Because of increased cost of supplies, the recipe book to be offered to the public at the Taste Fair will cost $2.50, said Mrs. Wyman Haigler, co-chairman. The book will contain the 40 recipes which fair-goers will sample, including Southern Western, Cajun and Pennsylvania Dutch goodies.

All proceeds from the Fair will be applied to cost of the recently-purchased church van.

Miss Kay Patterson, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Kelly Patterson of Kings Mountain, recently passed the state board examination as a registered pharmacist.

She has been serving her nine-month apprenticeship on the staff of Harper Pharmacy.

Miss Patterson is a 1976 graduate of the University of South Carolina School of Pharmacy.
