

Engagement Announced

Mr. and Mrs. H. K. Hambright of 1421 Grover Road announce the engagement of their daughter, Rita Kay, to Randy Scott Gibbons. Miss Hambright is a 1976 graduate of Kings Mountain High School and is presently employed at Park Yarn Mills. The prospective groom is the son of Mrs. Mary W. Gibbons. He is a senior at Kings Mountain High School and is employed by Duplex International in Kings Mountain. The wedding will be an event of Oct. 24 at 4:30 p. m. in Oak Grove Baptist Church.

Special Services

The Saint Paul Singers from Saint Paul's Methodist Church in Charlotte will be at Penley's Chapel Church on Sun., Sept. 25 to have the 11 a. m. service. It will be a singing witness-type service. The public is invited to attend. The Rev. W. L. Huffstetler is pastor.

Gospel Sing Set

Men for Missions of Kings Mountain will sponsor a big, free gospel sing Saturday at 7 p. m. in B. N. Barnes Auditorium.

Featured groups will be Missionary Master Tones of Shelby, Kendricks Family of Cliffside, Plainview Trio of Cliffside, and Master Tones of Lattimore. The public is invited to attend.

Returns From Ed Courses

Linda King of the Credit Bureau of Kings Mountain has just returned from a week of specialized education at the University of Georgia. One hundred and thirty-five Credit Bureaus and Collection Offices representing 22 states were on campus receiving updated information about current federal legislative developments and receiving specialized managerial training.

Of primary concern to the executives from the debt collection business attending the institute are the pending federal debt collection practice law which will be signed by President Carter next week. Credit bureau executives were also briefed on privacy protection and electronic fund transfer topics.

The Credit Bureau of Kings Mountain is a member of the Associated Credit Bureaus, Inc., a national trade association of 1,800 member credit bureau offices and 1,400 collection service office located in cities throughout the United States. The headquarters, located in Houston, Texas, has sponsored the Georgia Institute for the past 11 years.
