Drop-In Tea Is Sunday

Foster Parents of Cleveland County will sponsor a drop-in tea Sun., Oct. 2, from 4 until 6 p. m. at Cleveland County Shelter Home. All proceeds will be used to finance a Christmas party for foster children. President of Foster Parents is Bob Wilson and Verlee Mask is Secretary. The community is invited to attend.

Dinner Feted

Rhea, Mauney

An after-rehearsal dinner honored Miss Donna Roxanne Rhea and Edgar David Mauney on Aug. 19 at Kings Mountain Inn.

The bridegroom-to-be's parents, Mr. and Mrs. David Mauney, were hosts.

The hosts, the engaged couple, and Mr. and Mrs. George H. Mauney greeted arriving guests.

E-shaped tables in the private dining room were beautifully decorated in the wedding colors of white, green and yellow. Members of the wedding party were seated at the head table which was arranged with white and yellow snapdragons and baby's breath with runners of satin ribbon down the center of the linen cloths and similar arrangements on connecting tables.

Miss Rhea's place was marked by a corsage of yellow rosebuds which she pinned to the shoulder of her party dress.

Dinner was served to 53 guests, including members of the wedding party, family and friends of the honored couple.

Fingers Entertain

Bride And Groom-To-Be

Mr. and Mrs. Dan Finger, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Finger and Mr. and Mrs. Harry Warren of Lynchburg, Va. entertained together Sept. 10 at a drop-in honoring Miss Stella Lee Neisler and Gerald Putnam, whose wedding takes place Saturday.

Forty couples called from 8 until 10 p. m. at the Dan Finger home on Edgemont Drive.

Greeting guests with the honored pair were their parents, Mr. and Mrs. Joe Neisler, Jr. and Mr. and Mrs. Russell Putnam.

Also assisting in receiving were Mr. and Mrs. John Frezell, daughter and son-in-law of the Dan Fingers, and Mr. and Mrs. John Cheshire.

The dining table, from which party pick-ups and horsd'ouvres were served, held a pair of brass candlesticks as central decoration with natural flowers and foliage. Hot crabmeat was served from a silver chafing dish at one end of the table and silver appointments held ham and turkey, hot biscuits, and assorted delicacies.

Bridesmaid Luncheon

Honors Miss Neisler

Miss Stella Neisler, whose wedding to Gerald Putnam takes place Saturday at 5:30 p. m. in First Presbyterian Church, was honored Saturday at a 1 o'clock pink and white bridesmaids luncheon at the home of Mrs. J. H. Arthur on Edgemont Drive.

Entertaining with Mrs. Arthur was her daughter, Mrs. George B. Thomasson. White organdie placemats and napkins overlaid the dining room table and three small tables where guests enjoyed a three-course luncheon where the pink theme was featured further with pink melon balls and meringue shells filled with pink ice cream and fresh strawberries.

Fresh water lilies in varying shades of pink decorated the dining tables. A bride doll was used on the buffet and pink wedding bells and streamers were used on the front door.

Miss Neisler was presented her wedding gifts from the hostesses and also received from Mrs. Thomasson pink Spanish soap and a bride and groom "mud" doll which the Thomassons brought from Spain.

The bride-to-be took the occasion to present gifts to members of her bridal party.

Mrs. J. H. Arthur, and Miss Ann Thomasson, daughter of Mrs. George B. Thomasson.

among 25 students, all but five of whom are senior citizens, who have enrolled in Beginner Crocheting Class at Depot Center.

Every Tuesday afternoon from 1 until 3 p.m. you can find this group busily making their Christmas presents, including shawls, Santa shaped doorknob covers, Christmas stockings, bells and Christmas corsages.

Instructor is Miss Rita Falls and the class is sponsored by Cleveland Technical Institute.

Miss Falls said if five more citizens are interested in joining the class, she can teach two classes instead of one and schedule them at different hours at the Center.

Registration is $5 except for citizens over 65 who study free of charge.

Christmas is sew soon for this active group and you can believe they will be allready for Santa's visit.
