Attended Meeting

Six members of the Colonel Fredrick Hambricht Chapter of the Daughters of American Revolution attended the District Two meeting of the Society in Gastonia at the Country Club Sept. 21. Hostess chapters were the William Gaston and Major William Chronicle Chapters.

In the absence of the District Director, Mrs. O. N. Lynn, Mrs. Perry Starnes, state program chairman, presided. She presented the State Regent, Mrs. Martha Robinson, whose comments were centered around the film, "Home and Country" which is a project of the Society to show historical places of special interest and education throughout the nation. It is owned by the State Society and may be rented for program use by contacting the State Headquarters in Raleigh.

Among the special guests was the Director of the DAR School at Crossnore, Robert Martin. Two other schools of special interest to the Society are Tamasee, Ga., established in 1971 and Kate Duncan Smith in 1924.

Interest in and financial help are also given to several schools in the Indian Area. Also, the National Flag has been made in braille so as to aid the blind in feeling a true sense of patriotism. Time and money have also been given to the Veterans Hospitals and Centers by the DAR.

There are 108 State DAR Chapters and between 200,000-800,000 National chapters.

Survey

Mrs. Doris Brooks and Mrs. Janice Teeter will conduct a survey on home improvement and travel in the Kings Mountain area Oct. 1-15. A Bureau of Census survey, questions on improvement and upkeep of residential properties will be asked. Conducted four times annually, the home improvement survey yields valuable data to the public.
