

Farm Meeting Is Set

The Annual Meeting of The Cleveland County Farm Bureau will be held Tues., Oct. 18, at the Cleveland County Agricultural Extension Office (on Hwy. 180) at 7 p.m.

The program will include an annual report, recommendations from the Commodity Committees, election of officers, directors, and delegates to the State Convention.

The program for the evening will be "First Ladies Fashions and Fancies in Cotton." This fashion show is reproductions of the fashions during the period of President Washington through President Roosevelt. These fashions will be worn by some of our Farm Bureau Women. The highlight of the evening will be the presentation of an award to the "Farm Bureau Family of the Year."

Favors and door prizes will be given away during the evening.

Call the Bureau office by Wed., Oct. 12, to make reservations. The office number is 482-2436.

MY SINCERE THANKS TO THE PEOPLE WHO WORKED IN MY RECENT CAMPAIGN.

I WOULD ALSO LIKE TO THANK THE FINE CITIZENS OF KINGS MOUNTAIN FOR RE-ELECTING ME DISTRICT 5 COMMISSIONER.

I WILL CONTINUE TO DO MY VERY BEST

A SENSE OF HUMOR - Tommy Barnette, an unsuccessful district five commissioner candidate in Tuesday's local election, shows he still has a sense of humor even in defeat. He posed at the Mirror-Herald offices Tuesday night with a sword and joked, "A man with no more friends than I have needs protection." He polled 106 votes in his first bid for public office.
