RETURNS SHOT — Kings Mountain's Kim Gladden returns a shot to her opponent in Thursday's match at Kings Mountain High courts. Gladden won her singles match and teamed with Nancy Lee for a doubles victory as the Mountaintettes defeated Chase 8-1 in their regular season finale. KMHS enters the sectional tournament Wednesday at Shelby High.

KMHS Girls Win Finale Over Chase

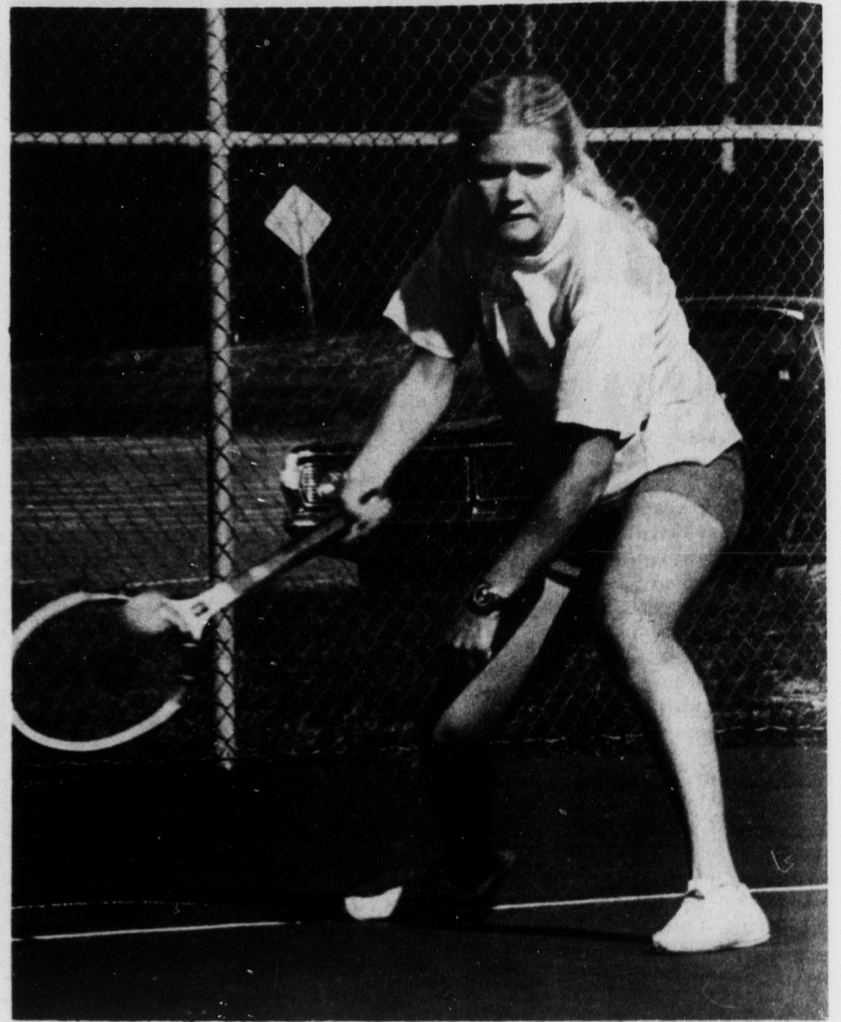

Kings Mountain High's girls netters split their final two games of the Southwestern Conference season last week, losing to Burns 6-3 on Monday and defeating Chase 8-1 Thursday.

Coach Ed Guy takes his Mountaintettes to Shelby Wednesday and Thursday for the Western Sectional tournament. Winners there will advance to the state tournament next week in Chapel Hill.

Sara Mauney was KM's only singles winner Monday at Burns. Mauney and Bridgette White and Elizabeth McGill and Nancy Lee won doubles matches.

Against Chase Thursday, the Mountaintettes swept five of six singles matches and all three doubles events in one of their most impressive showings of the season. The only match to go three sets was the number one singles match, in which KM's Pat Durham won 6-2, 6-7 and 6-3.

Other singles winners included Roxanne Tate, McGill, Kim Gladden and Mauney. Doubles winners included Durham-Tate, Gladden-Lee and McGill-Mauney.

KM WINNER — Elizabeth McGill is shown in singles competition as she Thursday. McGill also teamed with Sara Mauney for a doubles victory.
