Smith Runs At Gaffney Saturday

GAFFNEY — The Cherokee Speedway, fast half-mile dirt track and only one still in operation, has a host of new faces lined up for Saturday night's program starting at 7 o'clock.

Houston Wilkie, local favorite of long-standing, returns to action in a new Camaro, the car formerly driven by Dougman Davis. Kings Mountain's Freddy Smith, finishing second in his last outing, expects to have new 1978 Camaro, built by Barry Wright of Spartanburg, former Shelby car-builder. Ray Allison, who has been out of action several weeks following a wreck, expects to back and run to go along the other Georgia favorites, C. L. Pritchell and Aaron Galley. Others expected are Morganton's Bennett Clontz and Herman Mauney, Spartanburg's Billy Bishop and Harold Painter. Shelby's Floyd

Weaver and Preston Humphries, Gaffney's Mike Duval, Mike Humphries, David Perry, Charlie Gaffney and Tommy

Robbs, Woodruff's Doug Osteen and Fred Hawkins, Bolling Springs, Dennis Williams and many others. A host of new drivers out of Tennessee are also expected according to Promoter Ed Gault. David Pearson, Spartanburg's grand national favorite, may also be on hand to turn a few laps.

Gardner-Webb College VIP Weekend Slated

BOILING SPRINGS — High school seniors will have an opportunity of seeing what it's like to live on a college campus when Gardner-Webb College opens its doors on Nov. 11 and 12 for the VIP weekend.

For only a nominal charge for linens, high school and transfer college students can enjoy a football game, a performance of the musical "Oklahoma," a mini-circus, a blue grass band and four meals on the G-W campus. The weekend begins Friday afternoon when the guests will arrive on campus. They'll be escorted to their dorms by campus leaders, then served dinner in the cafeteria. Later they will attend the Gardner-Webb production of the Rogers and Hammerstein musical.

On Saturday after breakfast in the cafeteria, students will have an opportunity to meet with departmental representatives in the area of study they're interested in.

During lunch the guests will be entertained by Locomotion Circus, a mini-circus with fire and sword swallowers and the like. In the afternoon the guest students will attend the football game against Georgetown. After the ball game, they'll have dinner in the campus cafeteria.
