

Couple On Wedding Trip To Gatlinburg

Mr. and Mrs. William David Wise, Jr., who were wed Saturday, are on a wedding trip to Gatlinburg, Tennessee and afterwards will be at home on Monroe Avenue.

Miss Diane Elizabeth Clayton became Mr. Wise's bride in a formal eight o'clock candlelight wedding Saturday in Mount Tabor United Methodist Church of Winston Salem.

The Rev. Janice Johnson and Rev. James Bellamy officiated at the double-ring ceremony against a background of candles and greenery.

Wade Hampton Clayton, Jr. escorted his daughter to the altar and gave her in marriage. The bride's wedding gown was a formal design of candlelight Quiana designed along princess lines with stand-up wedding ring collar of hand-embroidered Alencon lace and long, fitted sleeves en-laced. Lace appliques encircled the hem and enhanced the Watteau cathedral-length train. Her veil of ivory bridal illusion was draped from a lace cap worn by her mother on her wedding day and she carried a bouquet of gardenias and stephanotis centered by a white phalaenopsis orchid showered with ribbons of satin streamers.

MRS. WILLIAM DAVID WISE, JR. (Diane Clayton)

Miss Cynthia Bernice Clayton was her sister's maid of honor and bridesmaids were Miss Margaret Azle Ruple of Statesville, Miss Mary Helen Faulkner of Smyrna, S. C., and Miss Eugenia Lanier of Winston Salem. Flower girl was Leigh House of Winston Salem.

All the attendants wore long formal of red Quiana featuring short sleeves topped with matching red capes. Each carried a single large white Cattleya orchid with streamers of red velvet ribbon attached.

Best man for the bridegroom was his father, William David Wise of Kings Mountain.

Groomsmen were Wade C. Clayton, III of Winston Salem and Mark Clayton of Nashville, Tenn., brothers of the bride; Vincent Nico of Hickory, Monte Falls of Kings Mountain, cousin of the bridegroom; and James Medlin of Winston Salem. Jeff House was ringbearer and Andrew House served as acolyte. The House children are children of Mr. and Mrs. Donald House of Winston Salem. For her daughter's wedding Mrs. Clayton chose a long sleeveless blue polyester crepe dress topped with blue and floral full-length coat. She wore a white orchid at her shoulder.

The bridegroom's mother was gowned in a formal dress of aqua Challie featuring long sleeves. She wore a white orchid at her shoulder.

Grandparents of the bride, Mr. and Mrs. Wade Clayton of Charleston, S. C. and Mrs. Zandie Houghton of Spartanburg, S. C., were seated in special pews. Mrs. Clayton was gowned in a blue formal and Mrs. Houghton chose an aqua formal. The grandmothers wore white orchids at their shoulders. The bride's parents entertained after the ceremony at a beautifully-appointed reception in the church fellowship hall which carried out the red and white theme of the wedding. Overlaid with lace cloth, the bride's table held the red and white wedding cake as central highlight. Punch and party pick-ups were served from silver appointments.

For traveling, Mrs. Wise chose a dark green ecrú silk ensemble featuring ecrú silk blouse and black suede accessories. She lifted the orchid from her bridal bouquet.

Out-of-town wedding guests included Mr. and Mrs. William David Wise,

Mr. and Mrs. Gillie Falls, Jr., Monte Falls, Mr. and Mrs. Dub Bialock and Mr. and Mrs. Richard White, all of Kings Mountain.

BRIDE AND BRIDEGROOM

Mr. and Mrs. Wade Hampton Clayton, Jr. of Winston Salem are parents of the bride who is a 1976 graduate of Lenoir Rhyne College at Hickory and is a member of the faculty of Forsyth Technical Institute.

The bridegroom, son of Mr. and Mrs. William David Wise, Sr. of Kings Mountain, is a graduate of Kings Mountain High School and is employed by Eaton Corporation.

Kings Mountain will be home for the newlyweds.

Cloggers Will Entertain

Cloggers of Lees McRae College at Banner Elk will present a program Sunday evening at 6:30 p. m. at First Presbyterian Church Fellowship Hall.

Prior to the clogging program, a congregational spaghetti supper will be served at 6 p. m.

The community is invited to join the local congregation for the special program.

Lees McRae students will also present a slide show depicting the college's philosophy and some of the unique things the school has accomplished. Lees McRae is conducting a capital funds campaign in Concord Presbytery and Presbyterian churches support the school with gifts.
