

Pats Still Unbeaten

TWO FOR KM—Pam Baity goes in for layup in Thursday's Kings Mountain-Burns Junior High game at the KM gym. KM won this game easily, then tacked on a victory at West and McDowell Monday to run its early-season record to 3-0. The Lady Patriots play at Shelby today and the winner will take over first place in the Western Conference.

The girls won 40-30 behind some balanced scoring and the boys won 73-47 in their biggest romp of the season.

The two KMJH teams face their toughest tests of the early season today at 4 p. m., when they take on a pair of tough Shelby teams in Shelby.

Diane Williams had another big game for the Lady Patriots Monday, scoring a game-high 15 points and hauling in 15 big rebounds. Sheryl Goode added 13 points and 11 rebounds and Pam Baity had 10 points.

"We had a real tough game," noted Coach Candy Albergine. "We were real tickled to come out of there with a victory."

KM held only an 18-15 lead at halftime.

Monday's victory kept the Lady Patriots in a tie with Shelby for the Western Conference lead. The Shelby ladies won their third straight Monday with a 44-38 win over Grandview of Hickory.

The KM boys fell behind 11-8 after one period of play but Vince Roseboro and Dennis McGill came off the bench in the second quarter to spark a 25-point rally that put Coach Ken Napier's club out front by 33-20 at halftime.

Roseboro scored 10 points during the spurt and McGill had eight.

McGill finished with 15 points and Roseboro 12. Carl Smith, who hit five of seven shots from the floor, and Ricky Proctor, who came up with some big steals on defense, added 10 points each and Markus Hager came off the bench to score eight points.

The Patriots shot 41 percent from the floor and 50 percent from the foul line.

The victory kept the Patriots tied with Grandview for the league lead. Grandview defeated Shelby 77-66 for its third in a row.

The two KM clubs return home Monday for their final pre-Christmas games against East McDowell.

KM's jayvees split their twinbill with West McDowell Monday at home, the boys winning 46-20 and the girls losing 29-20.

Angela Bell scored 10 points for the KM girls.

The jayvee teams host Shelby today and travel to East McDowell on Monday.

ANOTHER PIN—Kings Mountain High's David Gordon had his hand raised in victory for the fifth straight time Monday when he registered pin number five in a match with Crest before the KMHS student body. Gordon copped three pins in the Gaston Invitational Tourney and has two in regular season matches.

KMHS Matters Defeat Chargers

Kings Mountain High's wrestlers ran their record to 1-1 Monday afternoon with a 63-6 victory over Crest in a match held before the Kings Mountain High student body. The only points for the Chargers came on a forfeit in the 98-pound class.

KM picked up nine of its 12 wins on pins, with 167-pound Norman Phillips and heavyweight David Gordon stopping their opponents in 30 seconds.

The Mountaineers were scheduled to go to Shelby last night for a non-conference bout. They host 4-A Hunter Huss Monday night at 7:30.
