DOLLED UP FOR VALENTINE'S DAY — Every young miss likes to look her best on St. Valentine's Day when she's expecting candy or presents from her beau. Mirror-Herald Photographer Gary Stewart caught his young daughter, Leigh Anne, age four, as she was getting the beauty shop treatment at home. Leigh's Anne's expressions show she wonders if all her efforts is going to pay off.

Tribute To Elvis Set In Charlotte

"Elvis: I'll Remember You" will play Owens Auditorium, Charlotte, Feb. 18-19 for four performances. Tickets are $10, $9, $7 and $6 and are available at the Charlotte Coliseum boxoffice. Scotty Moore, special creative consultant to the show, was the guitar sound behind Elvis. Moore not only created the "King's Sound," but has been historically knighted as "the guitar that changed the world."

Garden Clubbers Met At Hugh Byrd Home

The Open Gate Garden Club met Wed., Feb. 8 at the home of Mrs. Hugh Byrd on Edgemont Drive. Refreshments were served from a beautifully decorated table, centered with an arrangement of Tulips and a Valentine Oriental Cherry Tree, carrying out the Valentine's Day theme. Seventeen members were present including two new members, Mrs. Margaret Kirk, and Mrs. Tom Trott.
