

Church Of God Ceremony Unites Stewart-Harris Pair

Kings Mountain Church of God on Parker St. was the setting Feb. 4th for a 1 p. m. wedding uniting Miss Donna Eugenia Stewart of Gastonia and Jeffrey Dale Harris of Kings Mountain.

Mrs. Donna Sizemore was organist for the program of nuptial music and vocal selections were by Mrs. Yolanda Osborn. Mrs. Osborn sang "Color My World," "You Light Up My Life" and the benediction "Wedding Prayer" as the couple knelt at the altar for the benediction.

Candles and background greenery enhanced the altar.

Roland E. Stewart escorted his daughter to the altar and gave her in marriage. The bride's wedding gown was a formal design of lace and organza featuring a sweetheart neckline trimmed in lace and long, lace sleeves which came to points at the hands. Lace appliques also enhanced the bodice and the very full skirt, trimmed with three rows of wide matching Alencon lace, extended into an aisle-wide train. She wore a waist-length mantilla and carried a bouquet of white roses and stephanotis.

Mrs. Carolyn Vannoy of Lake City, Tenn., was her sister's matron of honor and bridesmaids were Miss Elaine Stewart of Gastonia and Miss Tina Stewart of Columbia, S. C., sisters of the bride, and Miss Wanda Pilkington of Bessemer City, cousin of the bride.

The bridegroom's father was best man. Ushers were Gene Douglas Harris of Kings Mountain, brother of the bridegroom; Ronnie Stewart of Lake City, Tenn. and John Michael Vannoy of Lake City, Tenn.

After the ceremony, the bride's parents entertained at a beautifully-appointed reception in the church fellowship hall.

The newlyweds have returned from a trip to Charleston, S. C. and are at home in Kings Mountain.
