Magical Time
 Tour of Homes time is a magical time in Savannah, Ga. when the brass is polished as never before and the azaleas fill the city's famous squares with shades of pink and red. This year's Tour, scheduled for April 2-5, will be no exception.

Sponsored by the Women of Christ Episcopal Church and Historic Savannah Foundation, the Tour has become a major springtime event in the South and attracts people from all over the nation.

This year it will feature three days of visits to private residences, gardens and house museums, and three special evening parties, all planned to give the visitor a feel for life in this gracious city that was Georgia's first settlement. Today Savannah is nationally noted for its original town plan and for its Historic District with elegant mansions and townhouses.

Festivities will get underway Sun., Apr. 2, with an evening on "The Romantic Riverfront" where Georgia founder James Oglethorpe landed in 1733. A tour of the Ships of the Sea Museum and a reception will kick off the week's events.

Tour headquarters will be the DeSoto Hilton Hotel, and tickets are $10 for each tour and $22 for each special event. A brochure with complete tour schedule, a listing of places to stay and dine, and a reservation form may be obtained by writing: 18 Abercorn Street, Savannah, Ga. or calling the Tour Office (912-284-8064) or Historic Savannah Foundation (912-233-7787).

SOUTHERN LIVING SHOW

If comments from visitors to "The Southern Living Show" gala preview Friday night (before the show opened Saturday for a nine day run) are any indication, this year's Salute To Spring will be the most popular ever.

As visitors entered the show, at the Charlotte Merchandise Mart, they were greeted by an 18-foot waterfall with water gushing down in four different directions - over wildflowers, moss covered rocks, down through the adjoining Camellia Garden, Mountain Laurel Garden and Tropical Garden, and past exquisite designer rooms flanking the gardens.

The show continues through Sun., Mar. 5. Show hours are 10 a. m. to 9 p. m. weekdays and Saturdays and noon to 6 p. m. on Sunday.

Beginner II Bellydance classes will begin at Memorial Hall on March 2, 7:30-9:00 p. m. Class will meet each Thursday night for 6 weeks. Instructor is Marie Juergensen. Fee is $20. Interested persons should call Cynthia Byars at 864-8211, Ext. 297 for more information.

The Department is also interested in forming a Lunchtime Belly dance class for those ladies who cannot come at night, but who can participate for 45 min., during their lunch break. This class would also be held at Memorial Hall. Persons interested in this should also talk with Miss Byars. The lunchtime class would teach basic belly dance technique.
