

Lady Golfers Play In Foothills Tournament

Kings Mountain women golfers will participate in the 18-hole foothills tournament in Hickory Tuesday.

Local members should make reservations for luncheon by calling Margaret (Mrs. H. O.) Williams.

Lake Hickory Country Club golfers will host the event which will be played on the Catawba Springs golf course in Hickory.

COFFEE FOR BRIDE-ELECT
Honoring Susan Ballew, bride-elect, six Kings Mountain women will entertain Saturday at a coffee from 10 until 12 noon at the home of Dr. and Mrs. Frank Sincox at 404 Edgemont Drive.

Entertaining with Fran Sincox will be Ginnie (Mrs. Jack) Arnette, Betty (Mrs. Charles) Ballard, Jenny (Mrs. Bob) Maner, Carolyn (Mrs. N. H.) Reed, and Dottie (Mrs. Bob) Southwell.

"PICNIC"

TO OPEN
Greater Shelby Community Theatre will present the 1953 Pulitzer Prize-winning drama, "Picnic", this weekend, Friday and Saturday at 8 p. m. and Sunday at 2:30 p. m. in Malcolm Brown Auditorium.

Bud Thomas is directing the first drama to be undertaken by the organization in its two-year history.

Tim McKay, Shelby photographer for The Shelby Daily Star, has the lead role of Hal Carter, an attractive user of women whose life has never been able to equal either his reputation or his dreams. Playing opposite McKay is Beverly Borders as Madge Owens, the town beauty who only wants to be loved for herself.

Supporting roles are played by Brenda Crosby, a Shelby Star reporter, spinster teacher Rosemary Sydney who sees her last chance at happiness slipping away and Les Farfour as Howard Evans, her storekeeper "friend boy."

Madge's younger sister Millie is portrayed by Susan McCarter, and Reid Strickland has the role of her wealthy suitor, Alan Seymour.

Danette Rosenberg plays Flo Owens, the mother of the two girls; and Ina Towery portrays Mrs. Potts, the next-door neighbor. The remainder of the cast includes Bobbie Beam as Irma Kronkite, Shelley Dixon as Christine Schoenwalder and Hudson Welch as Bomber Gutsell.

Tickets are $2.50 in advance and $3 at the door. Because of its mature theme, special ticket rates are not being offered for children.

FROM NASSAU TRIP

Robin Dickey, senior student at Peace College, joined several hundred college students on a cruise on the Italian ship, Leonardo Da Vinci, to Nassau and Freeport in the Bahamas during spring holidays from school.

Robin's classmate,

Kathy Tyndall of Washington, D. C., spent the weekend here with Robin and her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Jim Dickey, and they flew from Charlotte to Fort Lauderdale, Fla. to board the ship at Port Everglade. They returned to Raleigh Sunday.

Miss Dickey enjoyed shopping at Freeport, brought her mother a crushed coral pin and other souvenirs including straw hats and baskets and shell jewelry. She said she loved the island with its beautiful flowers and water, especially enjoyed her stay aboard the ship.

DERBY FINALISTS

Kenny Davis, son of Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Davis, and Keith Dixon, son of Mr. and Mrs. Don Dixon, were among the top four winners in the Cleveland County Pinewood Derby race held at Ascension Lutheran Church in Shelby.

They will compete in the Piedmont Council Derby against 10 counties in May. Kenny and Keith are members of Pack 98 of Boyce Memorial ARP Church.
