Gaston College Offers Courses

The following courses are being offered for the first time at Gaston College during Spring quarter, March 24-June 2. ACT 208: Managerial Accounting, 11:00-11:55 MTWTF Managerial Accounting emphasizes how accounting data can be interpreted and used by management in planning and controlling business activities of the firm. The use of accounting data by investors is discussed wherever appropriate.

DRA 201: History of Theater, 11:00-11:55 MWF. This course is a study of the specific conditions under which the great plays of the world have been produced. Consideration of audience, actors, physical conditions, social conditions, and the playwright are studied. Representative plays are studied from the Ancient to the Renaissance Period.

EDU 203: The Exceptional Child, 1:00-1:55, MWF. The study of children with developmental variations. Consideration is given to recognition of problems, community resources, and selection of appropriate activities for the child with exceptional mental or physical development.

HIS. 104: World Contemporary, 11:00-

11:55, MWF. The History of the world since 1945 to the present. A survey of the political, social, and economic developments of Europe, Asia, Africa, and Latin America, and how they have affected world affairs.

RED 103: Methods and Materials, Teaching Reading II, 5:15-7:35, T, T. An overview of the major approaches to the teaching of children-adults to read. A major emphasis will be the study and utilization of materials actually found in the laboratory setting. Additional stress will be placed upon the acquisition of the vocabulary specific to reading education and to the piloting of reading lessons with small groups of school children.

Registration for Spring quarter is March 23 from 8:30 a. m. until 7:15 p. m. in the Myers Center auditorium. For schedules of all courses offered at Gaston College, call 622-3136.

GOSPEL SING

The Christopher Family of Greenville, S. C. will bring the gospel in song this Saturday evening at 7 p. m. at Kings Mountain Pentecostal Holiness Church and invitation is issued to the community to attend. Rev. Mark Robertson is pastor.
