led by only 4-2 going into doubles competition and the Mounties won three tough doubles matches to clinch the win.

"East was definitely the best team we've faced all year," noted Coach Ed Guy. "We led 4-2 after singles play and when we hit the doubles East got charged up, the wind started blowing hard and we sort of lost our composure. All three doubles matches could have gone either way and I was exceptionally pleased that our men came through and won it when the going got tough."

KM's doubles teams of Tim Riddle-Scott Summitt and John David Reed-Barron Wilson both trailed 4-1 in the third set but came back to win 6-4.

Billy Kinard New G-W Coach

BOILING SPRINGS — Billy Kinard, defensive secondary coach for the Cleveland Browns of the NFL the past two seasons, has been named head football coach at Gardner-Webb College according to athletic director Eddie Holbrook.

Kinard was selected from more than 50 applicants screened by the college's search committee and was the unanimous choice of the committee. Holbrook adds, "Dr. Craven Williams (GW president) and I were very much in agreement with the thoroughness in which the search committee did its job. We were also very much in agreement with their recommendation."

The football program at Gardner-Webb enters its ninth season as a senior college in the fall, with Kinard being the third head coach. In the previous eight seasons the Bulldogs have compiled a 29-51-1 record with the best years being a 7-5 mark in 1973, and last years 7-4 record and an 18th place ranking in the final NAIA poll.

Kinard played college football at the University of Mississippi where he lettered 4 years. He also earned 2 baseball letters at Ole Miss.
