

Call Of The Hills

BLOWING ROCK - The lure of the mountains in winter is a combination of beautiful scenery adorned with ice and snow, plenty of vigorous activity - like skiing or sledding, and afterwards a cozy fire, dim lights, and food to delight the appetite.

At Hounds Ears Lodge and Club, which already this season has set records for ski activity, the food is especially memorable.

Tony Wilson, the head chef at Hound Ears, shares recipes for three popular winter dishes which can be prepared easily and inexpensively.

And Hound Ears bartender, Jeff Hutchins, shares his recipes for hot buttered rum.

The dishes and drinks are guaranteed to delight apres skiing or any time on a cold wintery night.

SHRIMP SALAD
1 pound green, peeled, and deveined shrimp
2 boiled eggs, (chopped)
1 stalk celery (chopped)
2 tablespoons green relish or sweet pickles (chopped)

1 tablespoon cagers (optional)
1 tablespoon Worcester'shire sauce
2 tablespoons lemon juice

1 cup mayonnaise.
Cook shrimp, chop and combine with all ingredients. Makes four servings.

CHICKEN TETRAZZINI

Boil one hen (two hours or until tender.) Cool. Save stock. Strip chicken from the bone and cut into strips.

Heat 2 1/2 cups of chicken stock. Thicken with brown sauce (melt and brown one stick of butter or margarine and add three tablespoons of flour). Add 1 1/2 cups cooked spaghetti.

Saute 1/2 cup of fresh mushrooms. Add one chopped green pepper, 2 teaspoons chopped pimientos, 2 teaspoons salt, and 1/4 teaspoon pepper.

Pour into casserole and sprinkle with grated Parmesan cheese. Bake 45 minutes at 300 degrees F., or until golden brown. Makes six servings.

JAPANESE FRUIT PIE

1 stick margarine
1 cup sugar
2 eggs, well beaten
1 tsp. vinegar
1/2 c. broken pecans
1/2 cup coconut
1/2 cup raisins

Melt margarine in saucepan. Add sugar, mix well. Add eggs and vinegar. Stir in pecans, coconut, and raisins. Mix well. Pour into unbaked pie shell. Bake at 350 degrees F. until browned. Let set.

HOT BUTTERED RUM

Batter
1 lb. brown sugar
1/2 lb. soft butter
1/4 to 1/2 teaspoon ground nutmeg
1/2 teaspoon ground cinnamon

1/2 teaspoon ground clove
Pinch of salt
Instructions:
1. Beat sugar and butter together until thoroughly creamed.
2. Add nutmeg, cinnamon, clove and salt.
3. Preheat 6-ounce mug (rinse thoroughly in hot water). Pour in one jigger of rum or use a mixture of rum and brandy or whiskey.
4. Add 1/2 to 1 teaspoonful of batter until dissolved. Fill with hot apple cider. Float a pat of butter on top and serve with a cinnamon stick.
