

Baileys Are Married In Cary Ceremony

Greenwood Forest Baptist Church of Cary provided the setting Saturday for a 2 p. m. wedding uniting Miss Rita Darlene Reese of Bessemer City and Dr. Charles Stephen Bailey of Kings Mountain. Rev. Luther G. Brewer officiated at the double-ring ceremony.

Mrs. Gary T. McAlphin was organist for the program of nuptial music and Gerald Haas was vocal soloist. Mr. Haas sang "Wedding Song" before the exchange of vows and "Wedding Prayer" as the couple knelt at the altar for the benediction.

The church was decorated with four nine-branch candelabras with fresh foliage and palms banking the setting and a central focal point of whiter flowers interspersed with spring flowers.

Dr. Richard S. Reese escorted his daughter to the altar and gave her in marriage. The bride's gown was a formal design of white Qiana knit, fashioned with Victorian neckline, fitted empire bodice and long Bishop sleeves. A deep V yoke of Brussels and Venise lace with seed pearl embroidery adorned the fitted bodice and accented the empire waistline. The Bishop sleeves were enhanced by an insert of matching lace and pearls with a deep cuff and lace trim at the wrist. The full A-line skirt draped softly to floor-length with a border of matching lace at the hemline that flowed into a full, Chapel train. The long veil of silk illusion was framed with matching Venise lace and attached to a Juliet cap of lace and pearls. She carried a cascade of yellow roses and stephanotis.

Miss Sherrie Kaye Reese of Cary was her sister's maid of honor and bridesmaids were Miss Ellen Reese of Cary, sister of the bride; Mrs. Gerald Haas of Zionville, cousin of the bride; Miss Susan Ingram of Cary; Mrs. Lynn Beavers of Raleigh; Miss Pam Keaton of Wilson and Miss Wanda King of Asheville.

All the attendants wore floor-length gowns of yellow polyester and yellow chiffon, the maid enhancing her dress with yellow wide-brimmed hat with mixed spring flowers around the crown matching the spring bouquet she carried. Bridesmaids wore yellow chiffon capes which topped their dresses and carried nosegays of mixed spring flowers.

Richard Bailey of Charleston, West Virginia, brother of the bridegroom, was best man.

Groomsmen were Allen Rada of Charleston, West Virginia; Buddy Herron, Mile Tatum, both of Kings Mountain; Clint Reese, Jr. of Cary, cousin of the bride; James T. Piper, Jr. of Raleigh, uncle of the bride; and Jack Walton of Morrisville.

The bride's parents entertained after the ceremony at a beautifully appointed reception in the church fellowship hall which carried out the spring theme of the wedding. A yellow-decorated bride's cake was centerpiece for the refreshment table. The cake was cut and served with punch and party refreshments.

Mrs. John Rice, Mrs. Robert Watson, Mrs. Fred Seegar, and Misses Sherri Rooth and Kim Schaub, honorary bridal attendants, assisted in serving refreshments.

For a wedding trip to the Coast, the bride chose a yellow linen skirt and jacket and lifted the yellow roses from her bridal bouquet.

BRIDE AND BRIDEGROOM

Dr. and Mrs. Richard S. Reese of Cary are parents of the bride who is a 1977 graduate of Appalachian State University. She is a member of the faculty of Kings Mountain Junior High School.
