

Talent Show Scheduled For Tonight

Kings Mountain Senior High students will perform in the annual Schools Talent Show tonight (Tuesday) at 8 p. m. in B. N. Barnes Auditorium.

A variety of entertainment will be featured.

Six winners from tonight's show will advance to the city-wide Kings Mountain Kiwanis Schools Talent Show, high school division, to be held Apr. 27 in B. N. Barnes Auditorium. Admission is $1.

SECOND PLACE — Jimmy Tolodstocki and Arnold Ledford took second place money — $100 — for landing a total of 20.7 pounds of bass during the first annual KM Fire Dept. Toys For Tots Bass Tournament held at Moss Lake Saturday.

bing) showing his choppers for the audience and the camera. Gaylon Canipe is seen at the left. The event was to raise money for the Kings Mountain Babe Ruth League and was held at Barnes Auditorium. Sixteen area men helped bring the pageant to a success as contestants.
