Goare, Austin
Are Honored

"This is Your Life" marked special Appreciation Day programs at two churches recently much to the surprise of the honored guests.

Congregations of Kings Mountain Baptist and First Presbyterian Churches kept well-guarded secrets for weeks while preparations were underway to honor Rev. J. C. Goare at KM Baptist and Shirley Falls Austin and the Choir of First Presbyterian Church.

Members of the Recreation Committee and Women's Missionary Union surprised the Rev. Mr. Goare on Saturday evening at the church. Letters and messages of tributes were read to honor Rev. Mr. Goare and representatives of various Baptist Churches he has served were on hand to make appropriate remarks. Myrtle and Carl Goforth, neighbors of the J. C. Goares on Crescent Circle, praised the Goares for their spirit of good neighborliness.

At First Presbyterian Church last Sunday morning, Marilyn (Mrs. Henry) Neisler, who headed up the arrangements committee for the Choir "roasting," interrupted Rev. Gary Bryant as he was opening the morning worship service. For the remainder of the service, the choir members and director, Mrs. Austin, watched as members sang without the aid of music and read the call to worship, etc. Mrs. Austin was also presented with an engraved silver pitcher and various members of the congregation contributed tributes in "This Is Your Life" vein.
