Shower Honored Bride-Elect

Miss Robin Dickey entertained Saturday at a 12:30 bridesmaids luncheon at Kings Mountain Country Club honoring Miss Vickie Putnam, whose wedding to Phillip Francis took place Saturday evening in Grover.

Champagne toasts were made on arrival of guests. Mixed spring flowers of all-white dogwood, bridal wreath, spirea and white azaleas decorated the clubhouse.

The bride's table was covered with cream-colored cloth and arranged with pastel-colored spring flowers. Guests were seated at two tables, also covered in cream cloths, and arranged with bisque cupids.

Miss Putnam's place was marked by a white daisy corsage which was pinned to the shoulder of her party dress.

The hostess took the occasion to present her wedding gift to the bride-elect, a gift of silver in her chosen pattern. Miss Dickey also presented Miss Putnam a novelty gift, an electric dishwasher made of a cotton dishcloth with a fake electric cord.

A four-course luncheon was served.

Guests, other than the bride-elect and hostess, were Mrs. T. L. Putnam, grandmother of the bride-to-be; Mrs. C. F. Harry, Jr., Mrs. J. M. Francis, grandmothers of the prospective bridegroom; Mrs. P. A. Francis, mother of the bridegroom-to-be; Mrs. W. E. Putnam, mother of the bride; Miss Amy Francis, flower girl in the wedding and her mother, Mrs. Steve Francis; Mrs. Steve Dixon, Mrs. Tommy Neal, and Miss Patti Herndon, bridesmaids in the wedding; Mrs. Danny Griggs, matron of honor in the wedding; Miss Debbie Francis, bridesmaid in the wedding; and Mrs. James Dickey, mother of the hostess.

Luncheon Honored Bride-Elect

On April 1, the home of Mrs. Rick Bennett on York Rd. was the setting for a drop-in miscellaneous shower honoring Miss Janet Bridges, bride-elect of Tommy Anthony whose wedding will be an event of Mother's Day in Kings Mountain Baptist Church.

Entertaining with Mrs. Bennett were Mrs. Gene Austin, Mrs. Wayne Blanton, Mrs. Harold Crawford, Jr., Mrs. Stan Gainey and Mrs. Carl Morrow, Jr.

Mrs. Blanton greeted the guests at the door and presented them to the bride-to-be. Mrs. Austin, Mrs. Crawford and Mrs. Morrow assisted the bride-elect in displaying the gifts in the family room.

The bride's table was overlaid with a ivory cut lace imported Italian lace tablecloth illuminated with yellow candles in crystal hurricane lanterns. Mrs. Bennett cut and served the horseshoe-shaped cake decorated with yellow roses, daisies and violets surrounded by Easter egg cakes. Mrs. Gainey served punch from the crystal punch bowl. Sausage balls, cheese straws, small sandwiches, and lady fingers were served from silver trays.

A very large Easter basket containing a ceramic bunny, ducks and eggs was on the bar. Ceramic bunnies were used throughout the house. Geraniums, begonias, and Easter lilies also were featured in decorations.

The hostesses presented a corsage of yellow mums to Miss Bridges which was pinned to the shoulder of her floral party dress.

Twenty guests showered the bride-to-be with miscellaneous gifts for her new home.

The hostesses presented the bride-to-be with a Seal-A-Meal.
