

Amy Dixon
District 23
Miss Poppy

Amy Dixon, six-year-old daughter of Mrs. Jane Dixon and the late Charles Dixon, was voted "Miss District Poppy" at the District 23 meeting Saturday of five American Legion auxiliary units, Kings Mountain, Shelby, Rutherfordton, Spindale and Forest City. She represented the Kings Mountain Unit in competition with other Poppy Queens from the District. Amy will advance to state competition in June at the state convention of the Auxiliary in Winston Salem.

Mrs. Ruth Gamble, District 23 President, presented Miss Dixon with a red banner lettered in gold. Spindale Unit members hosted the 10 a. m. meeting which was followed by luncheon at Spindale House.

The members elected Mrs. Robert McRorie of Rutherfordton to serve as the new district president and Mrs. Jackie D. Barrett of Kings Mountain to serve as alternate district president for the coming year.

The Kings Mountain Unit won first place for its table arrangement of red poppies, a basket featuring poppies and blue-checked gingham flowers and baby's breath made by Mrs. Charles Dixon. The arrangement will be entered in state competition with other poppy winners. Mrs. J. M. Eubanks of Raleigh, state president, made the principal address.

Attending the meeting from Kings Mountain were Mrs. Gamble, Mrs. Barrett, Miss Elizabeth Stewart, unit president; Mrs. Charles Dixon and Amy; and Mrs. Mallie Parker.

Shelby Unit president Lib Harmon headed a delegation which included Mrs. B. M. Jarrett, past national president; Mrs. Anne Singleton and Mrs. R. K. Wilson. Mrs. Wilson presented the courtesy report for the meeting.
