Senior Citizens Honored At KM Baptist Church

Sunday, May 7th, was Senior Citizens Appreciation Day at Kings Mountain Baptist Church.

All members 60 years and up were special guests at the 11 o'clock service. The entire service was centered around them.

Each lady was given a corsage of yellow carnations which was pinned on by ladies of the Young Couple's Class. The men were given yellow carnation boutonnieres. The center section of the sanctuary was reserved with yellow ribbon markers. Each member of the Senior Citizens group was ushered in by men of the Young Couple's Class.

The ushers for the service were Lisa Crawford, Laura Herndon, Ruth Hullen, Trent Hullen, and Mark Smith, all grandchildren of members of the Senior Citizens group.

Anne Hord and Kristal Huffstetler presented a special anthem, "He's Everything To Me" for the Senior Citizens.

The yellow floral arrangement on the communion table was also placed in honor of Senior Citizens.

Mrs. Rick Bennett, representing the church, gave special recognition to Troy Carpenter, senior male member present, to Mrs. June Bell, senior lady present, Mrs. Helen Logan as the member with the most children and Mrs. June Bell as the member with most grandchildren.

Rev. J. C. Goare delivered an inspirational sermon, "Growing Lovely, Growing Old," dedicated to Senior Citizens.

After the service, all members of the church enjoyed a covered dish supper in the fellowship hall of the church.

Birthday Information Correction

In a news story in the May 18th edition of the Mirror-Herald the name of Jonathan David Lovelace's great-grandmother was incorrectly listed as Mattie Fite. Jonathan's great-grandmother is Mrs. Nettie Fite of Lattimore. His birthday party was held at the home of his maternal grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Henry Fite, not at Jonathan's home in Bethware Community. Jonathan is the son of Jerry and Susan Fite Lovelace and celebrated his first birthday May 14th. He is also grandson of Mr. and Mrs. Sam Lovelace of Kings Mountain and great grandson of Mrs. Irene Melton and Mrs. Mamie Gibbons.
