

Mauneys Are Wed In Lumberton Church

Back Swamp Baptist Church of Lumberton provided the setting June 17th for a 3 p. m. wedding uniting Miss Laura Beth Singletary and Roger Carroll Mauney.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Julius Thurman Singletary of Hill Crest Farms. The bridegroom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. James Irvin Mauney of Gastonia and grandson of Mr. and Mrs. F. O. Carroll of Kings Mountain and of the late Mr. and Mrs. W. I. Mauney.

Rev. Charles B. Evans, pastor of Crowders Creek ARP Church, of Gastonia, heard the exchange of vows in the double-ring service.

Miss Meredith Stone of Fayetteville was organist for the program of nuptial music.

The bride was escorted to the altar and given in marriage by her father. Her sleeveless gown of white chiffon over taffeta featured a Bertha collar, full circular skirt with a side peplum extending into a chapel train in the back and a slightly raised waistline with a self-fabric sash tied on the side. Her tiered veil of elbow-length illusion was worn in a Madonna drape from a Camelot cap of lace. She carried a white Bible given to her by her paternal grandmother, Mrs. Bertha Singletary, on her sixth birthday. Two white orchids topped the Bible.

Attending the bride as maid of honor was her sister, Miss Julie Ann Singletary. Her formal gown was of yellow dotted Swiss organza fashioned with scooped neckline with Bertha collar and full A-line skirt. She carried a nosegay of Shasta daisies. James Irvin Mauney, father of the bridegroom, was best man.

Groomsmen were the bride's brother, Julius Thurman Singletary, Jr., James Michael Mauney, the bridegroom's brother, and Billy Pitts and Lowell Hart of Siler City.

The bride was graduated from Pee Dee Academy, Mullins, S. C. and Meredith College with a B. S. in business administration. In her senior year she served as first president of the Hoop Print Club. She is employed with Gastonia Mutual Savings and Loan. The bridegroom is a graduate of Hunter Huss High School, Gastonia, and North Carolina State University Agricultural Institute with a B. A. degree. He is self-employed.

Party delicacies were served from the dining table, which was overlaid with a white embroidered linen and lace cloth, its centerpiece fashioned of pink roses, snapdragons, and gypsophilla in a silver candelabrum. Punch was poured from a bowl encircled by roses on a separate table covered with a Maderia cutwork cloth.
