YOUR CHANCES OF RETIRING RICH JUST ROSE TO 8%

INTRODUCING FIRST UNION'S 8% INDIVIDUAL RETIREMENT ACCOUNT.

If you're a working person not currently covered by a qualified retirement plan, you can open a First Union Individual Retirement Account and deposit up to $1,500 a year (or 15% of your annual compensation, whichever is less) to earn a full 8% interest. That's as much as the law allows. Because we compound daily, it's an effective yield of 8.448%. And you won't have to pay a dime of tax on that money until you take it out. When you'll probably find yourself in a lower tax bracket.

So come by any First Union office to ask about our Individual Retirement Account (IRA). It could make retiring rich a lot easier.

$1,500 Yearly Contribution
After	Amount Available In IRA Account
1 Year	$1,579
5 Years	$9,346
10 Years	$23,369
20 Years	$75,991
30 Years	$194,440
40 Years	$461,193

This assumes four equal deposits made on the 1st day of each calendar quarter in each year. The IRA pays 8% annual interest compounded daily; an effective yield of 8.448%.

We Make It Easier.

Deposits to First Union Individual Retirement Accounts have original maturities of three years. Federal law and regulation prohibit the payment of a time deposit prior to maturity unless three months of the interest thereon is forfeited and interest on the amount withdrawn is reduced to the passbook rate.
