

David Alvin Smith Icy Road Blamed For Death Friday

Ice-slick roads Friday night claimed the life of a Kings Mountain man. David Alvin Smith Morris, 23, of 204 Stowe Acres, was killed about 7:30 p. m. when his car slid on ice-slick PPG Road near Shelby. Morris was enroute home from Centurion International, Inc. where he was employed. Coroner Bennett Masters said the young man died instantly.

Funeral services will be conducted Tuesday at 2 p. m. from the Chapel of Harris Funeral Home by Rev. William Montgomery and Rev. Bobby Haney. Interment will be in Mountain Rest Cemetery. Mr. Morris was son of Earl Evert Morris of Kings Mountain and Mrs. Sue Wolfe of Monterey, California. Also surviving are his stepmother, Mrs. Maudie Mashburn Morris of Kings Mountain; one son, Christopher Lee Philbeck of Kings Mountain; three brothers, Matthew Everett Morris and Maurice Edward Morris, both of Kings Mountain, and Earl Evert Morris, Jr. of Monterey, Calif.; and three sisters, Mrs. Portia Ann Jeansonne of Monterey, Calif.; Mrs. Donna Jean Lettwich and Mrs. Margaret Allen, both of Kings Mountain.

FIRE MECHANICS - What do firefighters do when there are no fires to fight? They fix the firetruck, of course. Here Charles (Pete) Peterson and Joe Lettwich, a volunteer firemen, repair the clutch on one of the older trucks owned by the Kings Mountain Fire Department. The firemen also rebuild ancient fire vehicles exhibition in the KM Fire Museum in their spare time.

Over Weekend Jewelry Store Entered, Robbed

City police are investigating two incidents of larcenies which occurred during the weekend. Grayson's Jewelry reported a shoplifting incident on Friday. Two customers who were in the store looking at jewelry walked away with a necklace valued at $12.50, police said. James Carroll of Community Washerette, Waco Rd., reported the theft of a toy vending machine and gum vending machine on Saturday.

In Search Of The Living God

The Greatest Ruler Of Men

Of all men born, no doubt Enoch was one of the greatest rulers of men. At 65 he was elected emperor over 130 kings and princes. Enoch ruled the Adamic race on earth for 243 years and was indeed a "king of kings." When it became known that the Lord was about to take Enoch away, 800,000 men gathered to bid him farewell. Then Enoch was taken up in a whirlwind, with horses and a chariot of fire. Then his son, Methuselah, was appointed to reign over the kings of the earth. Jasher 1:26-32. You might say you have not heard of nor read the Book of Enoch or the Book of Jasher. If you are interested, write or call our ministry for information. Enoch said, "In those days a whirlwind carried me off the earth, and set me down (in Paradise). And there I saw . . . the dwelling place of the body, and I longed to dwell there." Paul wrote that Enoch was translated because he pleased God. Heb. 11:5. Enoch was the first and only writer of pure scripture before the flood. During a 60 day fast Enoch wrote 366 books and every word of his original writing was inspired. Like Paul, Enoch said that he wrote only that which was given him by the Lord. He fasted 60 days and said, "From the time when the Lord anointed me with . . . His glory, there has been no food in me. My (body) remembers not earthly enjoyment, neither do I want anything earthly." From the Secrets of Enoch 56:2 in L. B. B. Enoch was the only man who ever saw the records of angels written on heavenly tablets. He wrote, "From them, I acquired knowledge and understanding." Enoch 92:3. Enoch, more than any man, served the Lord and despised the ways of evil man. He continually desired the knowledge and the instruction of the Lord. In order to write his 366 books, Enoch was given more divine wisdom than had ever been given any man. God also instructed Enoch - "I have instructed my two angels, Arukh and Parukh . . . to guard (your 366 books) that they may not be lost in the deluge (flood) to come. Enoch's Secrets 33:11. Regarding the 366 books of Enoch, also the two available today, which contain 178 brief chapters, I believe these chapters were copied from 366 books after the time of the flood. If Enoch's books were the only scriptures available for 1,500 years before our Bible, then surely Noah and his family had some of them aboard the ark. Enoch's books were written 1,500 years before Moses wrote the first five books in the Bible. Moses, Paul and other writers preferred to the works of Enoch as scripture. Deu. 33:2. So, as far as is known today, there were no other writers of scripture during the 1,500 years between Enoch and Moses. The Lord said to Enoch, "Take the books you have written, and give them to all who will read them, that they may know that there is no other God but me. Tell them to distribute all your books - children to children, generation to generation, and nation to nation. . . And all who read and believe them, and keep my commandments will be glorified when I resurrect them from the dead." Secrets of Enoch 22. Enoch wrote many more times than Paul, though Paul wrote over half of the new Testament. With the exception of Paul, Enoch wrote more of the coming of Jesus and the resurrection of the dead than all other writers of scripture. About 100 billion persons have lived and died. Of this number, only Enoch and Paul actually visited Paradise and the New Jerusalem. Cor. 14:4. I will feature more articles on the books of Enoch in future columns. Many of the things we print in these columns may not yet be seen by other believers, but we stand on the rock (Jesus) and we are grounded in basic truths of salvation (Yeshua). We at the ministry of Positive People Worldwide wish not to debate nor destroy any orthodox Bible truth, but we as a body try to promote and teach greater truth perhaps not yet known to believers.
