KMH Students Attend Presidential Classroom

Six KMSHS students have been tapped to attend the 1979 Presidential Classroom seminars Feb. 17-24 in Washington, D. C.

They are Todd Gatts, son of Mr. and Mrs. Richard S. Gatts; Leslie Jean Hambricht, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Paul Hambricht; Lindsay Holmes, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ray Holmes; Barry Mark Lineberger, son of Mr. and Mrs. Harold Lineberger; Laura Marie McGinnis, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Jim B. McGinnis, and Julie Owens, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John R. Leach.

Chartered in 1968 as a non-profit, educational program, Presidential Classroom has provided more than 15,000 young people firsthand exposure to prominent government leaders and key observers of the Washington scene. Complimenting the formal learning experience of the program is the opportunity for students to explore the geographic, cultural and socio-economic diversity of their peers in a national student body.

Todd Gatts is president of the National Honor Society, a member of the Beta Club executive council, co-editor of the yearbook, photographer for the school newspaper, Morehead Scholarship nominee, commended student NMSQT-PSAT, InterClub council, Pfeiffer College Math Contest, participated in the senior play and is a member of the senior choir, pep club and science club.

Miss Hambricht won the DAR history award, was her sophomore representative and this year is a member of the Beta Club, officer of the Science Club, on the annual staff and is vice-president of the Junior Class.

Miss Holmes, a senior, is a member of the Beta Club and Honor Society, yearbook editor, drum major, has been included in "Outstanding Names and Faces," "Outstanding Young Americans" and "Who's Who Among American High School Students." She attended Girls State, was a Governor School and Morehead Scholarship nominee, a Junior marshal, winner of the Hugh O'Brien award, and a student council representative. She plans to enter the University of North Carolina at Chapel Hill in August to study pharmacy.

Lineberger, a senior, is a member of the Beta Club and National Honor Society, president of the Science Club and president of the Future Farmers of American chapter. Last summer he was a Boys State delegate and has been named in "Who's Who Among American College Students." He plays church league basketball, volleyball and football and is active in Resurrection Lutheran Church.

Miss McGinnis is active in the Beta Club, SPO, served as student body secretary, vice president of the FHA, and as an officer in the French club. She is a member of the choir at St. Matthew's Lutheran Church where she is president of the youth group. She has won awards in piano achievement.

Julie Owens, a junior is a member of the Beta, Science, French and Pep clubs. She is also a class representative, member of the band, Governor School nominee, and is serving as organist for Bynum Chapel and Vestibule Churches. Miss Owens has attended music camps at Appalachian State University and N. C. School of the Arts.
