

The Bells Honeymoon In Vegas And Hawaii

Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Marshall Bell, who were wed Saturday, are on a wedding trip to Las Vegas, Nevada and Honolulu, Hawaii.

Miss Phyllis Ann Stroup became Mr. Bell's bride in a seven o'clock formal wedding in Gastonia's Holy Trinity Lutheran Church.

The Rev. C. Peter Setzer heard the exchange of vows in the double-ring candlelight ceremony.

Mrs. Clyde A. Cloninger was organist for the program of traditional music.

The altar of the church was banked with palms and set with two brass candelabra holding spiral tapers. White and pink flowers were used in two altar vases at either side of the setting.

Franklin Ambrose Stroup escorted his daughter to the altar and gave her in marriage. The bride's wedding gown was a full-length formal design, an Original by Priscilla of Boston, of silk chiffon over crepe.

The bodice of Alencon lace and English net featured a scoop neckline and cap sleeves of lace and net. The full A-line skirt of chiffon fell from an empire waistline and was bordered by scalloped lace. The skirt was sprinkled with appliques of Alencon lace in back and flowed into a chapel-length train. Her long veil of pure silk illusion, also a Priscilla design, was bordered with Alencon lace and sprinkled with appliques of lace and caught to a cap of matching lace. She carried a bridal bouquet of stephanotis and roses centered with an orchid and showered with streamers of satin ribbon.

Miss Susan Rebecca Stroup attended her sister as maid of honor and bridesmaids were Mrs. Gary Awkerman of Mt. Pleasant, S. C., Miss Karen Barbie Smith, Miss Jane Lloyd Lachicotte, both of Columbia, S. C., and Miss Margaret Ellen Hill of Clarkston, Ga.

All the attendants wore full-length formal gowns of Swedish rose Silestia chiffon posed over rose taffeta, Originals by Aria. Designed with full blouson sleeveless bodices, the slim skirts were attached to fitted waistline enhanced by slim self-covered cord belts. They carried bouquets of silk flowers in shades of pink and rose with baby's breath and ferns and tied with streamers of rose ribbons.

Robert Anthony Bell of Morrow, Ga. was his brother's best man.

Groomsmen were Karl Franklin Stroup of Richmond, Va., brother of the bride; Dr. William Warren of Vidalia, Ga., brother-in-law of the bridegroom; and Jeffrey Wayne King of Doraville, Ga.

The bride's mother was gowned in a long formal of pale peach chiffon over covered cord belts. The taffeta featuring a blouson bodice with boat neckline and long, full sleeves. The skirt was enhanced by tiny pleats. She wore a corsage of green orchids at her shoulder.

The bridegroom's sister, Mrs. William Warren of Vidalia, Ga., chose a lavender chiffon formal and a white orchid at her shoulder.

Mrs. Flora Bell of Eatonton, Ga., grandmother of the bridegroom chose a long blue formal and a white orchid corsage.

The bride's parents entertained after the ceremony at a beautifully-appointed reception in the church fellowship hall where the bridal colors of pink and rose were featured in decorative details. Overlaid with white linen enhanced by pink ribbon, the bride's tables were two round tables decorated with candelabrum and pink flowers. A tiered wedding cake was topped with pink and white sweetheart roses and was cut and served with pink punch and party refreshments. Hurricane lamps were used with greenery in the windows of the reception hall and greenery, fern, hanging baskets and pink flowers and candles were used throughout the hall.

Mr. and Mrs. J. V. Richardson, Jr. greeted guests and Ms. Vickie Coleman of Atlanta, Ga. kept the register.

Mrs. Dewey Warren of Gastonia cut and served the wedding cake and Mrs. Robert Stroup and Mrs. Gordon Harris, both of Gastonia, aunts of the bride, served punch. Goodbyes were said to Mr. and Mrs. Robert Gault of Gastonia, aunt and uncle of the bride.

For a wedding trip, the new Mrs. Bell chose a three-piece ensemble of winter white and lifted the corsage from her bridal bouquet.

WADE TYNER RECALLS '79 FORD LTD'S.

"I can't remember when Ford had a better idea than the '79 LTD. On the outside, it's smaller than the old LTD. And on the inside, it's just as roomy.

"Can't remember when an LTD got the kind of gas mileage the '79's are getting.

"Know what else I can't recall?"

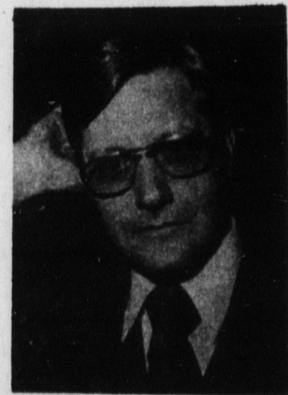

"How I ended up with a double order of LTD's."

"Rather than send half of them back, I'm marking them all down $800 to $700.

"If my memory serves me correct, that's getting close to prices we had two years ago.

"You'll probably come in and say I said $800 off my '79 LTD's. For all I know, you're right.

"With a memory like mine, who am I to argue?"
