

W.F. Baty Presents Program

W.F. Baty, well-known nature photographer from Knoxville, Tenn., will present a one-man exhibition of his photography at the Schiele Museum of Natural History and Planetarium.

Baty has traveled extensively throughout the U.S. photographing National Parks and has for the past five years worked exclusively on his upcoming picture book of the Great Smoky Mountains.

Baty will present a live slide-lecture program on Sun., March 11, at 8 and 4 p.m. in the Museum's Learning Center Auditorium. This program is open to the public and no admission fee will be charged. This is a very special exhibit that you will not want to miss.

The photographers prints entitled: "W.F. Baty's Great Smoky Mountains: A Look at Aesthetics" may be seen from 9 a.m.-5 p.m. Tuesday-Friday and 2-5 p.m. Saturday and Sunday beginning March 11.

Oak Grove Pinewood Derby

And The Winners Are...

Keith Morris, Danny Hamrick, Tim Moore, Larry Stone, III and Steve

Greene were winners in the Pinewood Derby sponsored by Oak Grove Baptist Church Cub Troop 94 Monday evening at Oak Grove Baptist Church Fellowship Hall.

The Cub Scouts raced their handmade cars to the finish line in a big race in which 38 Boy Scouts participated. Trophies went to Morris, son of Mr. and Mrs. Bob Morris, first place winner; Hamrick, son of Mr. and Mrs. Dan Hamrick, second place winner; Moore, son of Mr. and Mrs. Rick Moore, third place winner; and Stone, son of Mr. and Mrs. Larry Stone, Jr., fourth place winner.

Plaques for outstanding service to the Scouting program in the community were presented to William Davis, assistant Webelo leader; Diane Davis, assistant Cubmaster and Den leader; Mrs. Luellen French, Den Mother, Mrs. Doris Pruette, Den Mother, Mrs. William P. Anthony, Scouting committee chairman; and Jacob Greene, Webelo leader and Cubmaster.

Recognized as special guests were Rev. Russell Hinton, pastor of Oak Grove Baptist Church, and Mrs. Cal Fisher, Girl Scout leader in the community. Banquet tables were decorated in the Blue and Gold colors and dinner was served buffet style to 100 guests, including families of Cub Scouts.

Pack 91 Boy Scouts supervised the racing program for the evening and announced the winners after the big race had ended about 9:30 p.m.

DO YOU LONG FOR ADVENTURE?—Come take the voyage to "Treasure Island" with the villainous Captain Long John Silver (Stan Hardin) and young Jim Hawkins (David Baldree.) Showtime is March 16, 17 and 18 at Brown Auditorium in Shelby. The Greater Shelby Community Theatre will present this adventure classic at 7:30 p.m. on March 16-17 and on March 17-18 at 2 p.m. For the Kids, prizes will be awarded for best plate costumes worn at matinee shows.

'Angel Street' Next

Gastonia Production

The suspense thriller, "Angel Street," now in rehearsal at the Little Theatre of Gastonia, will open March 29, continuing for seven performances, Thursdays through Saturdays for two weekends, with a Sunday matinee on April 1.

One of the most popular plays of its genre, "Angel Street" enjoyed popular success both in London and New York and won an "Oscar" for Ingrid Bergman for her performance as the tormented, terror-filled wife of a crazed husband in the movie version of the play, "Gaslight."

Heading the cast of the Little Theatre's production, under the direction of Simon Donoghue, are: Carol Fry, in the role of the fear-filled wife; Charles Barkley as the diabolic husband and Ennis Atkins as the police inspector.

In the other key roles, Susan Lisle will portray the saucy, young maid and Jeanne Moore, the stolid older servant.

GOSPEL SING

"Eternal Life Trio" will be featured in a special singing Saturday night at 7 p.m. at Piedmont Baptist Church on Cherryville Rd. Rev. Ansel Center, pastor, said the community is invited to attend.
