Heag & Sons
Book Bindery, Inc.
Springport, Mich. 49284

TUESDAY'S

KINGS MOUNTAIN MIRROR HERALD

VOL. 90, No. 20

TUESDAY, MARCH 13, 1979

15c

Murder Charge Is Dropped

No probable cause was returned in the charge of murder against a Kings Mountain woman in District Court last Thursday.

Betty Jo Bell Ross, 24, of Rt. 4, was charged with murder in the Jan. 26 shooting death of her estranged husband, Randolph Ross.

The fatal shooting, according to Mrs. Ross, came after several hours of physical abuse at the hands of her estranged husband. At the time of the shooting, police had been called earlier that evening to remove Ross from his wife's home. Mrs. Ross told police Ross returned later and broke into the house.

Judge George W. Hamrick presided in the probable cause hearing in Shelby.

Office Moves To KMC Center

The Kings Mountain Development Office has moved from The Depot Center to be relocated in the new addition to the KM Community Center on Cleveland Ave.

The offices are the first ones to the left after entering the Cleveland Ave. entrance.

Executive Director Jerry King said the office is still seeking information on buildings and land suitable for commercial business and industrial development.

Currently the office has about 30 listings which are shown to potential businessmen and industrialists seeking new locations for expansion.

King said anyone with acreage or buildings for lease or sale may contact him at 739-5346 to have the properties listed for showing to potential clients.

Spring Band Concert Set For Tonight

Spring Band Concert of the Kings Mountain Junior High Ninth Grade Band and KMSHS Blazer Band will be held Tues. March 13, at 8 p.m. in B.N. Barnes Auditorium on the campus of Kings Mountain Senior High School.

There is no admission charge and the community is invited to hear state contest festival selections by the two bands.

Donald J. Deal will direct the Blazer Band and Christopher H. Cole will direct the Ninth Grade Band.

School Bus Drivers Course Is Planned

School Bus Drivers Class will be taught on April 10 and 12. Interested adults and students are encouraged to contact Blaine Froneberger at 739-5401 for registration. The current rate of pay is $3 per hour for all bus drivers.

Jeff Boggan In WC Choral

The 55-voice Wofford College Glee Club and Mixed Ensemble will present a concert of music on Friday evening, March 23, at 8 p.m. at Central United Methodist Church.

Jeff Boggan, Kings Mountain freshman at Wofford and son of Rev. and Mrs. Bob Boggan, is a member of the group which is on concert tour.

The community is invited to attend.

Fun For Funds At KMSHS

Photos By Gary Stewart

PUSHING THE VW....

These students pushed a VW around Gamble Stadium track Saturday to raise money for Muscular Dystrophy.

The original KM to Charlotte push was cancelled.

BOOGIE DOWN....

The gym at KMSHS was the scene of a dance-a-thon from morning til night to raise MDA funds.

ROCKING FOR MDA....

Rocking is another popular fund-raiser held Saturday at KMSHS. Here a group of students enjoy themselves in the morning sunshine.