

Smith Wins Again At Gaffney Track

GAFFNEY, S.C. - Freddy Smith of Kings Mountain, riding a two straight win streak in his No. 00 Camaro, bids for his third straight late model sportsman victory here Saturday afternoon at the Cherokee Speedway. Gates open at 11 a.m. Action on the seven-event program begins at 2:30. The rookies join the late model and limited sportsman field this weekend. Two heats and a main event are slated in the late model sportsman and limited sportsman divisions. Georgia's C.L. Pritchett, driving his No. 27, Camaro, led most of the main event before sliding high in the first turn. Smith took the lead and never gave it up with 10 laps left. Other favorites expected to return are Gaffney's Mike Humphries, Charlie Blanton, David Perry, Mike Duyall and Jimmy
