

Local, Area Theatre Offers You A Variety

The Kings Mountain Little Theatre will present four performances of the religious drama, "The Robe," during the pre-Easter season.

Performances are scheduled at the Park Grace Auditorium on Apr. 5, 6 and 7 at 8 p.m. and Apr. 8 at 2:30 p.m.

There is no admission, but an offering will be accepted to benefit the Kings Mountain Ministerial Association Helping Hand Fund.

A theatre spokesman said, "Since the auditorium is not very large and the shows are free we suggest advance reservations be made. To make sure you have a seat for a performance, call the First Presbyterian Church office, 739-8072, between 9 a.m. and 2:30 p.m."

"The Robe" was a novel written by Lloyd C. Douglas and became the subject for the first Cinemascope movie in the 1950s. The book has been dramatized for the stage by John McGreevey and the local production is under the direction of Mrs. Aubrey Mauney.

very last. But armchair detectives who go to view the show will have all the clues the stage detective is provided with, so give it your best shot.

A mystery has hung over "Angel Street" for 15 years since the death of a young woman and the disappearance of a man. But did the man really disappear? And what are the mysterious occurrences taking place on "Angel Street" which are slowly driving another woman insane?

These are the questions answered as the Victorian era thriller "Angel Street" unfolds at the Little Theatre of Gastonia.

The show opens tonight (March 29) at LTG at 8:15 p.m. Other performances are March 30-31 and April 5-7 at 8:15 p.m. and a matinee Sun., April 1 at 2:30 p.m.

The cast includes Carol Fry, Charles Barkley and Ennis Atkins. The show is directed by Simon Donaghue.

The Little Theatre of Gastonia is located on S. Clay St. and reservations can be made by calling 865-0160.

"The Fantasticks" is scheduled as the final Gaston College seasonal production on April 27-28 and May 4-5 p.m. in Myers Center Auditorium.

This spring musical is co-sponsored by the Gaston College Fine Arts Council and the drama department and is under the direction of Chris McKinney.

Showtimes are at 8:15 p.m. and general admission is $2.50. Student tickets are $1.

Bridge Luncheon At Woodbridge

A St. Patrick's Day theme was used throughout the clubhouse for the Woodbridge Country Club's Ladies' Day Bridge luncheon Tuesday.

Donuts in shamrock serving trays and coffee were served from a table featuring a Leprechaun and candle arrangements. There were several tables of bridge present and high scorer was Mrs. Albert Petty, second high was Mrs. John Major and low Mrs. Joe Porter.

A green tablecloth centered with spring flowers flanked by green candles and shamrocks was used on the luncheon table. Mrs. Oscar Baerenwald read an Irish poem by Brian O'Higgins.

Hostess was Mrs. Wade Tyner.

Guests were Mrs. Richard Hardeman and Mrs. Joe Porter.
