

M-SGT. HARRIS

Harris Receives Honors

Master Sergeant David W. Harris of the 150th Tactical Airlift Squadron, North Carolina Air National Guard, Charlotte, was accorded double honors upon his graduation from the Air National Guard Noncommissioned Officers Academy.

MSgt. Harris was designated a Distinguished Graduate for academic and leadership excellence in placing among the top 10 per cent of his class. MSgt. Harris was also selected as the recipient of the Honor Flight Commander's Award for exhibiting outstanding qualities of leadership as Commander of "C" Flight at the Academy.

MSgt. Harris makes his home in Kings Mountain, with his wife, the former Sherry Sorrels of Gastonia, and their two sons, David, age 8, and Jason, age 5.

A veteran of 20 years military service, MSgt. Harris has been with the Air Guard for 10 years. Prior to entering the Air Guard, where he is employed as a full time Technician, he served ten years in the U.S. Navy. His present duty assignment is as a Flight Engineer Instructor.

The letter of commendation from Col. Edmond C. Morrisey, Jr., Commandant of the Academy at Alcoa, Tennessee, pointed out the significance of the awards:

"These achievements are especially significant because they involved keen competition among a highly motivated group of senior Noncommissioned Officers of comparable intelligence, wisdom, professional competence and dedication to their Air Force professions and the Air National Guard," said Col. Morrisey.

In commenting on the dual award, MSgt. Harris had this to say: "I feel being selected as the recipient of the Honor Flight Commander's Award was the most outstanding. The award reflected upon the entire flight and how we were able to function as a unit and perform as a team. The Distinguished Graduate Award was great. That was a personal accomplishment, the Honor Flight Commander's Award belonged to all of us."

MSgt. Harris is a native of Gap Mills, West Va. where his mother, Violet, resides.

Inducted

Shena Burris and Lin Chen of Kings Mountain and Kenneth W. Dover of Grover were inducted into the Cleveland Tech chapter of the Gamma Beta Phi Society last Friday evening.

The induction ceremony was held at Gardner-Webb College.

Students earn a place in the society by averaging a 3.50 (B plus) or above cumulative average on 15 or more quarter hours.
