

Bell, Hickman Recognized Steve Boggan Named KMHS Honor Athlete

STEVE BOGGAN

Steve Boggan who quarterbacked the Kings Mountain High footballers to a 5-5 season last fall, was named KMHS's Honor Athlete of the Year at the annual Cleveland County Sports Hall of Fame banquet Monday night.

Two other KMHS athletes received certificates of merit, Sammy Bell for wrestling and Angie Hickman for track.

Boggan, senior son of Rev. and Mrs. Robert Boggan, was labeled a "complete student-athlete" by his football coach, Dan Brooks. "During his high school career, he participated in football, basketball and baseball," said Brooks, "and he is very active in other school and church activities." Boggan is president of the local chapter of the Fellowship of Christian Athletes, was a leader in the recent Muscular Dystrophy drive at KMHS which raised over $12,000 and is active in Central United Methodist Church, where his father is pastor. Bell was All-Conference in three sports, wrestling, track and cross country.

He had a perfect record in regular season in wrestling and finished with an overall record of 20-1. He won the Gaston Invitational and South-western Conference championships for his weight division before losing in the Regional Tournament. Hickman participated in four sports, volleyball, basketball, track and softball. She's already made All-Conference in volleyball and track and will be in the running for a berth on the All-SWC softball team, which hasn't been released yet.

Patriots Have Two-Game Lead

Kings Mountain Junior High's Patriots got back on the winning track Thursday with a 9-4 victory over College Park of Hickory. The win gave the Patriots a 9-1 Western Conference record and a two-game lead over second place Shelby.

Kevin Jones came on in the fifth inning in relief of Scott Shaw to save the game for Coach Porter Griggs, who played 21 men.

Jeff Moss and Jones had two hits each to lead an 11-hit plate attack. One of Moss's was a home run.

Kings Mountain built up a 5-1 lead after four innings and put the game on ice with a three-run rally in the sixth.

KM scored twice in the first on an error, walk, and singles by Jeff Moss, Terry Bullock and Jones and
