

Dr. Olin Whitener Resigns

Dr. Olin Whitener, Jr., pastor of Shiloh Presbyterian Church in Grover for nearly three years, has resigned, effective May 20th, to assume new pastorate duties in York, S.C.

Dr. Whitener, his wife, Ruth Ann, and their three sons, Trip, Jason and Benjamin, will be moving to the Allison Creek community between Clover, S.C. and York, S.C. where he will become pastor of the Allison Creek Presbyterian Church.

A graduate of Columbia Theological Seminary, where he also received his Doctorate in theology, Dr. Whitener came to Grover in June 1976 as pastor of Shiloh and Dixon Presbyterian Churches. He completed his duties at the Dixon church last July. He is a native of the Hickory Grove Community of Charlotte and returned to the seminary with his family after working in the business field for a number of years. He took his summer internships at Fort Mill, S.C.

Voter Group

Annual Meet

Set May 18

The annual meeting of the Cleveland County Voters Registration Association will be held Fri., May 18 at 7:30 p.m.

At this general membership meeting new officers will be elected. The meeting will be held at Bynum Chapel AME Zion Church.

Essay Winner

A fifth grader from West School, Patti McGinnis, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John McGinnis, is Kings Mountain's first national winner of a Daughters of American Revolution-sponsored history essay contest.

Miss McGinnis's winning essay, also a state winner, was entitled, "America's Future Begins With Me". It will be published in the spring edition of the National DAR Magazine.

Mrs. Tolly Shuford, regent of Colonel Frederick Hambricht Chapter, presented the national award certificate to Miss McGinnis this week, noting that it was in recognition of outstanding achievement in the knowledge of history of our country and ideals on which it was founded under the Constitution of the U.S.A. The certificate is signed by Jeanette O. Baylis, President General of the National Society of Daughters of the American Revolution.

Miss McGinnis is a member of the Junior American Citizens Club at West School, a citizenship club formed in Mrs. Hilda B. Goforth's fifth grade and sponsored by the DAR. Patti won $5 as the state winner and $10 as the national winner.
