Record Blood Collection

Kings Mountain Senior High students sponsored a record blood collection Monday as a total of 206 pints of blood were donated to the Red Cross bloodmobile.

Mrs. Mary W. Timms, executive secretary of the Cleveland County Red Cross Chapter, said that KMSHS students are No. 1 as the largest, most productive donors from any visit of the regional blood collecting unit in the county high schools. Shelby students collected 197 pints of blood at a recent visit, said Mrs. Timms.

Goal of the local visit was 200 pints of blood. The visit attracted 124 first-time donors, many of them high school students.

Mrs. Betty R. Gamble and Mrs. Margaret Baird were co-chairmen of the successful visit and numerous volunteers were from the Future Homemakers of America Chapter at KMSHS and Home Economics Department. Student co-chairmen were Laura McGinnis and Joanna Rushing.
