

Fultons Married Saturday in Double-Ring Ceremony

First Baptist Church of Grover was the setting Saturday for a 7 p.m. exchange of wedding vows uniting Miss Elizabeth Kay Wright and Lanny Gene Fulton in marriage.

The couple pledged vows of the double-ring ceremony before the Rev. Robble Moore.

Tim Ware was organist and Rev. Marvin Greenway was soloist.

Clarence L. Wright escorted his daughter to the altar and gave her in marriage. The bride's wedding gown was a formal design of white polyester Silesta chiffon styled with V neckline complemented with lace insert, long, straight sleeves enhanced by flounce ruffle and empire waistline. The gown fell into an elegant sunburst pleated skirt flowing into a chapel train. The skirt was enhanced by a lace flounce ruffle. Her fingertip length veil of illusion was trimmed with silk Venice daisy lace and attached to a lace covered Juliet headpiece. Daisy appliques accented the veil. She carried a bouquet of white roses, stephanotis, and lily-of-the-valley centered with yellow roses.

Mrs. Debbie Wright Moore of Grover attended her sister as matron of honor and bridesmaids were her sisters, Mrs. Connie L. Hale and Miss Gail Wright, both of Grover, Mrs. Beth F. Stoughton of Columbia, S.C., sister of the bridegroom; Miss Helen Francis of Shelby, Mrs. Carol Packard of Shelby, Miss Debbie Moore of Grover.

Junior bridesmaids were Miss Stacie Jennings of Landrum, S.C. and Miss Leigh

Anne Fulton of Grover. Flower girl was Miss Mary Edith Fulton of Blacksburg, S.C.

All the attendants wore yellow formal-length gowns of Quiana nylon with accoridian pleats and spaghetti straps. They wore matching yellow chiffon capes and carried blue and yellow mums and wore yellow flowers in their hair.

Danny Fulton of Grover was his brother's best man.

Ushers were Tommy Hall and Mike West, both of Spartanburg, S.C., Jerry

Jennings of Landrum, S.C., Mickey Moss of Blacksburg, S.C., Thayer Addington of Blacksburg, S.C., and Ricky Bowen of Grover. Junior ushers were Brad Lovelace of Grover and Stephen Jennings of Landrum, S.C.

Ringbearer was Bobby Fulton of Blacksburg, S.C. The bride's mother chose a formal-length mint green gown of satin and chiffon with flowing chiffon sleeves and an orchid corsage.

The bridegroom's mother was gowned in a turquoise gown of Quiana nylon which featured long chiffon sleeves. She wore an orchid at her shoulder.

After the ceremony, the bride's parents entertained at a beautifully-appointed reception in the church fellowship hall where the yellow and white wedding theme was featured in decorative details.

The couple left for a wedding trip to Nassau and Paradise Islands in the Bahamas and afterwards will be at home at 2150 Chesnee Highway, Spartanburg, S.C.

Sharing host duties with the Gaffneys were Mr. and Mrs. Ed Yarbro.

Hamburgers with all the trimmings were enjoyed by 20 guests who found their places at small tables set with white cloths and centered with hurricane lamps and candles.

The hosts took the occasion to present their wedding gifts to the engaged couple.

Couple Feted At Party

Dr. and Mrs. Charles Reed, whose wedding took place this month, and Miss Linda Hornowski and Grady Howard, Jr., whose wedding takes place July 21, were honored Saturday night at a dinner party at the home of Mr. and Mrs. J.C. Bridges.

Entertaining with Mr. and Mrs. Bridges were Mr. and Mrs. Jack White, Mr. and Mrs. Tom Tate, Dr. and Mrs. John C. McGill, and Dr. and Mrs. D.F. Hord.

As the 25 guests arrived at 7 p.m. punch was served on the porch and Jack White offered a toast to the honored couples.

The host couples took the occasion to present pewter pitchers to the two couples and African Violets to the bride and bride-elect.

A yellow and white color motif was featured in decorative details. Yellow and white-checked cloths overlaid the buffet table and round tables where guests found their places for a Southern barbecue chicken dinner with all the trimmings. Magnolia blossoms and Williamsbury hurricane lamps holding white tapers decorated the buffet table. Magnolia blossoms centered the small dining tables.

Pettit-Toney Vows Exchanged

Polkville Baptist Church was the setting Saturday for a 4 p.m. exchange of wedding vows uniting Miss Elizabeth Ann Pettit and Sherrill Durant Toney.

The couple pledged vows of the double-ring ceremony before the Rev. Alton Martin.

Mrs. E.M. Pettit was organist for the program of wedding music and Ms. Judy Huber was vocal soloist. Ms. Huber sang "Annie's Song" before the ceremony and "The Lord's Prayer" as the benediction.

The altar of the church was banked with palms and centered by a mass arrangement of white mums. Candles interspersed the setting.

Charles Jay Pettit escorted his daughter to the altar and gave her in marriage. The bride's wedding gown was a formal design of white dacron polyester featuring a Queen Anne neckline and full, bishop sleeves of Chantilly lace. The empire bodice and waist and tiered skirt were enhanced by Chantilly lace. The dress was complemented by a chapel train. Her fingertip veil of illusion was trimmed in matching Chantilly lace and draped mantilla fashion. She carried a bouquet of daisies and baby's breath.

Mrs. Marvin Wilson attended her sister as matron of honor and bridesmaids were Ms. Margaret Pettit of Raleigh, Mrs. Tim Galyean of Asheville, Mrs. Donald Luckadoo of Ellenboro, Mrs. Jack Anderson of Charlotte, Mrs. Bill Conder of Charlotte, Mrs. Paul Short of Ellenboro, Mrs. John Edwards of Charlottesville, Va. and Mrs. John Martin of Ellenboro.
