

Morris-Morgan Vows Spoken In Tennessee

Erma Kathleen Morris of Signal Mountain, Tenn., and Darrell Lee Morgan of New Market, Tenn., exchanged their wedding vows at 4 p.m., Sun., Dec. 27 at Signal Mountain Presbyterian Church in Signal Mountain, Tenn.

Rev. Jerry McElhinny and Dr. Frederick Z. Woodward officiated in the double-ring ceremony.

Music was provided by Dr. James Greasby, organist, and special flute music was performed by Miss Janice Plonk, cousin of the bride. Dr. Frederick Woodward sang "The Lord's Prayer" during the ceremony.

The bride was given in marriage by her father, Lt. Col. Lovell Jason Morris Jr. She wore her mother's candlelight lace-trimmed, floor-length gown which had a trailing train edged in deep lace. The long sleeves were tapered to a point with tiny covered buttons. Her veil was of knee-length illusion and chantilly lace and was attached to a beaded juliet cap. She carried a spray of fresh white roses and Christmas greenery and a white lace handkerchief.

The bridegroom was attired in black tails with a boutonniere of white silk roses.

Ross Morgan served as his brother's best man. Ushers were David Morgan, brother of the groom, Jay Morris, brother of the bride, Reza Safabakhsh, Bill Andrews and David Fairweather.

The maid of honor was Miss

Jodie Plonk of Kings Mountain, cousin of the bride. Matron of Honor was Mrs. Keith Collins. Other attendants were Miss Leigh Wilson, Miss Karen Mosley, Miss Catherine Bobo, and Miss Vickie Parman. They wore formal gowns of cranberry satin and carried white muffs with silk poinsettias in pink and burgundy.

A reception was held following the wedding at the home of the bride. Serving were Miss Janice Plonk, Miss Jill Plonk, Mrs. John R. Hurley, Mrs. Rick Myatt, Miss Jamie McAllister, Miss Marleah Tabor, and Miss Lisa Gibson.

BRIDE AND GROOM

The bride is the daughter of Lt. Col. and Mrs. Lovell Jason Morris Jr. of Signal Mountain, Tenn., and is the granddaughter of Mrs. Rufus Lawrence Plonk of Kings Mountain and the late Rufus Plonk. She is also the granddaughter of Lovell J. Morris Sr. of Chattanooga, Tenn., and the late Mrs. Morris.

The bridegroom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Luther D. Morgan of New Market, Tenn., and the grandson of Mrs. Pauline Chandler and Mrs. Rachel Morgan, both of New Market, Tenn.

Following a wedding trip to Charleston, S.C., the newlyweds are residing in Port Moresby, Papua New Guinea.

Lovelaces Celebrate Golden Wedding Day

Mr. and Mrs. Zeno Lovelace of Kings Mountain celebrated their 50th wedding anniversary Sunday at the Kings Mountain Depot Center.

A drop-in reception was held from 3 until 5 p.m. and hosted by the couple's three children, Gerald Lovelace, Joyce Babb and Brenda Layton, all of Kings Mountain.

Over 150 persons attended.

Guests were welcomed by Ed Babb, Patrick Layton, and Darrell Whetstone. The couple's granddaughter, Denise Seawright, attended the guest register.

Gifts were received by grandchildren Scott Layton and Lori Seawright, and opened and displayed by grandchildren Deana Lovelace, Kenneth Babb and Brian Whetstone.

The table was covered with a white and gold tablecloth and held the couple's four-tiered anniversary cake, which was topped with yellow roses and the numerals 50. A flower arrangement of yellow roses centered the table.

The cake was cut by the couple's daughter-in-law, Sonya Lovelace, and their granddaughter, Terri Lovelace, served the cake.

Mr. and Mrs. Lovelace were married January 23, 1932 in York, S.C.
