Frances Caveny First Female Funeral Director

Frances Caveny of Kings Mountain has joined the staff of Harris Funeral Home as the city's first female funeral director.

She recently received her funeral director's license from the North Carolina Board of Mortuary Science after completing a 32-hour course of study at Cleveland Technical College and serving a year's apprenticeship at Harris Funeral Home.

During her year's apprenticeship, she assisted in directing funeral services of all types, assisted in funeral arrangements, reported obituaries to the news media and sent in quarterly reports to the State Board of Mortuary Science.

Her state board exam included testing on hygiene, public health, microbiology, psychology, accounting and mortuary administration.

Mrs. Caveny and her husband, Sam, reside in the Bethlehem Community. They have two sons, Dale and Dennis, and are members of Bethany Baptist Church of Grover.

Understanding Adolescence Film At Boyce Memorial ARP

"Preparing for Adolescence: Peer Pressure and Sexuality" is a film designed to help Junior and Senior Highs and their parents understand the pressures young people have to contend with in those critical years of transition between Childhood and Adulthood. This film will be shown Sunday evening, March

Stewardship Celebration

The members of Central United Methodist Church will have their second Festival of Stewardship celebration Sunday at 6:30 p.m. The dinner will be served at the above hour, with fellowship singing to follow. Dr. Thomas B. Stockton, Senior Minister of Myers Park United Methodist Church, will speak to the congregation in the sanctuary following the singing.

Dr. Stockton is native of Winston-Salem, is a graduate of Reynolds High School, received his AB degree from Davidson College, 1952, his BD degree from Duke Divinity School, 1955, and studied at Cambridge University, 1956. He has served the Myers Park Church since 1975.

Those who wish to attend the dinner should call the church office to make reservations.

John O. Plonk, Jr. is Chairman of the Stewardship and Finance Committee.

VBS WORKSHOP

There will be a Vacation Bible School workshop presenting Standard and Concordia materials on Mon., Mar. 22 at 7 p.m. at the Gaston Public Library Auditorium on Garrison Blvd. in Gastonia. The workshop is free and for all denominations. It is sponsored by the Living Word, Inc., of Gastonia. For further information, call 866-7381.

21, at 6 p.m. in the sanctuary of the Boyce Memorial Associated Reformed Presbyterian Church, located beside the Kings Mountain Hospital.

This film features Dr. James Dobson, one of America's leading authorities on the family. Dr. Dobson is Associate Clinical Professor of Pediatrics at the University of Southern California School of Medicine, and author of several very popular and helpful books, including one entitled Preparing for Adolescence.

The Boyce Memorial ARP Church wishes to offer this film as a service to any in the community who wish to better understand the years of adolescence. Especially, the church encourages teachers, parents of young people in or about to enter the years of adolescence, and young people themselves to attend.

Youth activities and a nursery will be provided during the film for those with smaller children.
