

Photo by Gary Stewart

GOLF WINNERS - Pictured above are the winners in the Women's Invitational Golf Tournament Tuesday at Kings Mountain Country Club. First row, left to right, Genie Henson, Dot Spangler, Anne Pouchak, Doris Cloninger, Cathy Barrett, Frances Rogers, Denice McKee and Loraine Arey. Back row, Donis Gold, Janet Tate, Margaret Williams, Lynne Mauney, Lib Gault, Connie Ledford, Marge Senet, Fran Vaughan and Jessie Forney. Not pictured, Susie Howard.

Gault Wins Tourney

Lib Gault fired an 84 Tuesday to win the Women's Invitational Golf Tournament at Kings Mountain Country Club.

Second low gross honors in the championship flight went to Dot Spangler and Lynne Mauney, who shot 85 each.

Margaret Williams won low

net honors in the championship flight with a 70 and Loraine Arey was second with a 73.

Donis Gold won low gross in the first flight with a 91 and Denice McKee was second at 92. Anne Pouchak won low net with a 68 and Genie Henson and Fran Vaughan tied for second with 71s.

Frances Rogers shot a 98 to win low gross in the second flight and Cathy Barrett was second with a 103. Connie Ledford won low net with a 72 and Doris Cloninger was second with a 73.

Susie Howard took low gross in the third flight with a 98, followed by Marge Senet with a 105. Jessie Forney won low net with a 70 and Janet Tate was second at 74.

Mrs. Gault won the prize for the longest drive, Mrs. Williams won longest putt honors and Mrs. Mauney won the closest to the hole contest.

There will be a yard sale Saturday from 8 a.m. until at the Shiloh AME Zion Church on Elm Road in Grover.

Piedmont Baptist Church's Youth Department is sponsoring a yard sale and bake sale at the church Saturday, June 26, 8 a.m. to 2 p.m.

Photo by Gary Stewart

FLYING LEAP - David Jenkins of Kings Mountain takes a big leap along a long line of one dollar bills Friday at Deal Street Field. As a part of its annual Dixie Youth Queen Night, officers of the local Dixie Youth Leagues gave representatives from each team a chance to win money. The contestants received as many bills as they were able to hurdle.

KM's Jeff Guy Wins Tega Cay Tennis Title

Eleven-year-old Jeff Guy of Kings Mountain won the singles crown and teamed with Sean Ferraira of Charlotte to win the doubles championship in the York Observer Tennis Tournament last week at Tega Cay, S.C.

Jeff won four matches in straight sets to claim the singles title. He defeated Scott Cunningham of Tega Cay 6-1, 6-0, Kevin Constantine of Tega Cay 6-0 6-0, Ron Davis of Rock Hill 6-2, 7-5, and Jens Cuntz of Charlotte 6-4, 7-5.

In doubles action, Jeff and Sean defeated Todd Ewing of Charlotte and Richard August of Tega Cay 6-1, 6-1; Scott Sutton and J. J. Tramonana of Tega Cay 6-0, 6-0; and Ron Davis and Patrick Low of Rock Hill 6-0, 6-0.

Jeff, son of Mr. and Mrs. Ed Guy of Kings Mountain, is a state-ranked junior player and participates each week in tournaments around the Carolinas. He also plays for the Kings Mountain Summer Youth Tennis Team.

JEFF GUY

Softball Standings

CHURCH LEAGUE
Teams	W	L
Church of God	11	1
Oak Grove	9	2
Bethlehem	6	5
First Presby.	6	5
Long Creek	4	8
Oak View	3	8
Carson Mem.	2	12

JUNE 15 RESULTS
Bethlehem 7, Carson Mem. 6;
First Presby. 11, Long Creek 3;

Oak View 16, Carson Mem. 8;
Church of God 14, Long Creek 3

JUNE 17 RESULTS
Church of God 4, Carson 1;
Bethlehem 6, Long Creek 5;
Church of God 12, Oak View 4;
Oak Grove 9, First Presby. 7.

JUNE 19 RESULTS
First Presby. 23, Carson Mem. 1.

Green Hurls No-Hitter In Babe Ruth Baseball

Jamie Green of the Kings Mountain Redlegs hurred a no-hitter against Gastonia in a Senior Babe Ruth League baseball game Thursday night.

The Redlegs scored a 12-0 victory. Green didn't walk a batter and struck out eight.

Eric Spicer, Robert Anderson and Eric Ballew had two hits each to lead the Kings Mountain plate attack. One of Anderson's was a grand slam home run.

Reggie Cunningham was the losing pitcher.

The Redlegs won four other games during the past week, defeating Iredell County 8-1, Southern Pines 8-4, the Kings Mountain Orioles 14-5 and Bessemer City 7-6. The win over Bessemer City moved the Redlegs into a tie for first place with Bessemer.

Tony Childers hurred the victory over Iredell County at Statesville. He allowed only three hits and fanned seven. Anderson had a perfect day at the plate, smashing three doubles, and was named the game's most valuable player.

Roy Mathis hurred the win over Southern Pines and also collected a pair of hits and was named the game's most valuable player. Anderson led the KM hitting with 3-for-4. Mathis gave up only four hits, walked two and fanned nine.

Tony Childers outdueled Randy Whitaker as the Reds whipped the Orioles. Anderson led the KM hitting with 2-for-3, including a homer, and Mathis also homered. Jeff Moss led the Orioles with 2-for-3. Childers scattered six hits and struck out 13.

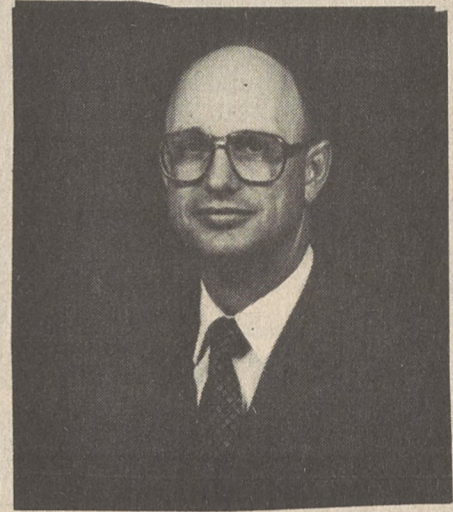

Turn To Page 4-A

Re-Elect

Cleveland

County

Commissioner

DAVID M. ("PETE") STAMEY

- Son of Wyatt and Gazzie Stamey
- Life-long Resident and Democrat
- B.S. Degree - N.C. State University
- M.A. and Eds - Western Carolina University

WILL CONTINUE TO WORK FOR BETTER - NOT BIGGER LOCAL GOVERNMENT

Former Sheriff J. Haywood Allen Says: "LET'S KEEP DALE COSTNER AS SHERIFF OF CLEVELAND COUNTY"

"Dale Costner is the most qualified candidate for Sheriff with valuable and useful knowledge of law enforcement. During his 25 years with the Sheriff's Department he has had training in every phase of law enforcement within the department.

"Actual experience is truly an asset to his qualifications. He knows the job and is doing a splendid job as Sheriff.

"As his former supervisor I highly recommend Dale Costner to the voters of Cleveland County. I recommend Dale for his present job as Sheriff."

Respectfully,

J. Haywood Allen Former Sheriff

"Experience makes all the difference in the world"

Sheriff Allen Administered Oath To Dale Costner

D. DALE COSTNER....For Sheriff

Paid For By the Committee To Elect Dale Costner Sheriff